Frosh Win, 150's Jaycees, And Varsity Lose On Charles Basin

Technology oarsmen lost the first regatta of the season, and the Rowe Cup to Harvard crews in relatively close finishes last evening on a rough Charles River. Both crews were overtaken by adverse gusts of wind.

The only Dover boat to win was frosh heavyweight who finished the Henley distance three lengths ahead of Harvard. Closest event of the day was the varsity 150s, which Harvard won by three feet after Tech had led all along the course. The varsity lost by two lengths, the Jaycees by a length, and the 150s by seven lengths.
