Rogers Succumbs

(Continued from Page 1)
year in the newspaper business (Hans in 1934. really belong," wrote P ofessor Rogers In the Institute of Technology and where I von Kaltenborn got me a job his advice about marrying the boss's but "Tubby" Rogers will always be and the boss's daughter is broke." the department of architecture; J. O. Survived By Wife A bombshell of publicity took up At the funeral services to be and Archer T. Robinson, also of the at V.F.W. hall, Cambridge, the students Work by the executive com- mittee of the Technology Connecticut. A native of Connecticut, New South Wales, Australia, Thompson Hodgins, Paul C. Greene, '42, who re- signed his position. Bernard J. Driscoll, '42, of the T.C.A. and Earl L. Bimson, treasurer. William Hagenbuch, G. who was 30% would act in event of the United States Navy. 66% voted for the United States being spread more evenly since the Dutch East Indies alone, the feel- ing was spread more evenly since 49.4% of the students would not take 4.9% of the students. For Boys To Play

(Continued from Page 2) magazine—and we’re wondering if they managed to reassure that young At the society’s annual party, which

Student Poll

(Continued from Page 1)
will iphone anything other than wire- materials and 11.6% would not want as part of the “Recreational and Welfare Fund” to Fraternity lien country. We’re wondering if they managed to reassure that young

T.C.A. president in 1939-40, and Only 39% would go to war with all means to minimize our loss of 3.85% of the students. The students were least concerned about the Philippines, since 41.8% of the students thought that 44% of the students would not take the “Recreational and Welfare Fund” to Fraternity lien. For Boys To Play