Swimming Coach Jarog Urses Soph Turnout

A call for beginners swimmers to register in order for Beaver Key 1941 had been issued by Assistant Coach John J. Jarog. The practice sessions which will take place are being held daily at 5:30 P.M. on Alumni Pool.

In order not to have only twelve rowers register, they were left to register until time for actual training. Only four weeks remain until Beaver Key starts, and the amount of time could be utilized in order to develop a swimming team, according to Coach Jarog.

Novars Open Against Lowell In Two Weeks

Over Thirty Men Practice Daily

Under Two Coaches

With their first game against Lowell Tootles only two weeks away, the varsity, Tech's non-varsity football team, after two weeks of building in fundamentals began actual scrimmage training yesterday evening. Head Coach Benjamin, George C. Hunt and his capable assistants, Design Files have had two turnouts each evening; and the men are already true football shapes of acquiring a well-seasoned eleven.

Over thirty men and seniors competing more than two full lines and three backfields make up the team, of these, twelve placed on the 1941 Junior-Senior team which will split over a season's pay.

Handling the passing for the novars will be John Arnold, returning half from last year's varsity football. Arnold's kicking helped the Cardinals out of many a tough spot a year ago, and figures high in plans for this season's aggregator. Among other problems around which the team is being pleased are Tom Gibe, Bill Pote, and Dick Arndt.

Opening Game Troubles

The novars will meet their toughest opponent in the first game against Lowell. Excellent instiutions in the eighth, meeting the Tech novars' varsity the difficulty will be their initial battle.
