THORNTON TO REPLACE BYRNE
Open House Cancelled
To Avoid Interference
With Defense Projects

Committee Considering
Course Exhibits Plan
To Replace Biennial
Three Ring Circus

The first edition of Technology's Vol. 14 Open House scheduled for this fall, it is learned at last night's meeting of the Institute Committee. Fearing that the presence of the Open House would be an interference with defense projects, the Committee recommended that the program be canceled, and this recommendation was approved by the Ithaca Corporation. The $50,000 budget of the Open House Committee, reported to the Institute Committee last night, is expected to be cut out.

President Explains Technology's Role
In Defense Research
At the first open forum of the Departmental Society President, Karl T. Compton described the effort of the Institute to aid in National Defense. The Institute's aid is divided into three major categories: the activities of Institute scientists and engineers; the educational preparation of National Defense Personnel. Dr. Compton.Enums that there are 350 faculty members putting into operation 90 projects for the defense program, and that these projects involve the Institute, and that these projects would surely suffer if the Open House program were continued.

To avoid interference, Dr. Compton explained that the entire Open House program has been canceled. The full program of exhibits would be postponed until the first open forum of the Departmental Society, at which time the members of the various courses will give an account of their work.

Students Form New Orchestra
M.T. Music Club Organizes;
Two New Women Officers

Each year since 1942, four years without a school sponsor of any sort, Technology's music group has been a flourishing orchestra and a singing group. Under the sponsorship of the Department of Architecture and Engineering, a new organization has been formed to continue this tradition. The new officers of the orchestra are expected to be in attendance at the first open forum of the Departmental Society. A reception will be held in the President's house on Thursday, October 18.

Rutter And Rae Speak At Smoker
Debating Society Gets Forty Members
For Coming Year

The membership of the Debating Society has grown in the past few years, from 30 to 40 members. The Society is expected to have a membership of 40 members this year, with 20 new members having joined the Society. The new members will be introduced at the smoker, which is to be held on Thursday, October 23. The smoker will be held in the basement of the Engineering Building, and the members will be introduced to their chosen learning partners.

Voss Optimistic On Construction
Professor Says That Outlook For Builders Appears Encouraging

Commenting on the recent OPA ban on non-essential construction, and the general effect of the present defense effort on the building field, Prof. Walter C. Voss today presented an optimistic picture of the opportunities for employment for young architects and engineers. The building field, he said, is expected to expand in the near future, and the demand for skilled workers will increase. The demand for skilled workers in field of defense work will increase, and the Society will train itself and prepare to take its place in the period of reconversion. He also mentioned that the new, increased availability of money in the banks and in the government will enable these non-essential activities to be carried on, and that the Society will be needed.

Stubbard And Blade
To Hold Smoker Tuesday
Stubbard and Blade, Technology's debate society, will hold its first smoker Tuesday, at 7:30 P.M. in the main hall of Walker Memorial. Two hundred dollars from local colleges such as Binghamton, Stevens Institute, College of the City of New York, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Emerson, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Lehigh have received speeches in the Catholic Student Union. The Catholic Student Union is one of the Catholic Club and from present indications, the debate will be a success. The debate is staged for fun and for the purpose of introducing a new man to the whole group, and the Society will introduce them to the chosen learning partners.

Budgets For Activities
Should Be Submitted

Those student activities which will need funds during the coming year should submit a budget to the Finance Committee. This is to be done immediately at the next meeting of the Committee meeting last night.

The budget should include an estimate of the income and expenditures expected during the academic year.
