Winchberger Exhibited
In Building 10, New Library
Halls

To announce the subscription drive which begins today in the undergraduate dorms, the Tech Engineering News has been holding a large exhibit of pictures in Building 10 featuring a Winchberger. This home lighting equipment is exhibited with the story in last year's T.E.N., a popular exhibit now on Grandpa's, New Hampshire.

The Winchberger has been moved to the entrance of Minneopa, and will there be on display today and tomorrow, as the T.E.N. subscription drive opens. This will be the last chance for students to examine this machine, which is now widely used on many farms in the Middle West, and is already in many homes. The Winchberger is highly regarded on rural districts beyond the reach of commercial power lines.

Inside the Winchberger, the T.E.N. subscribers will have the opportunity of seeing how the magazine is composed and published.

Socialized Medicine
To Be Topic Of Debate

Technology Varity Debaters will discuss the merits of socialized medicine at the upcoming Debating Tournament, to be held on Thursday, November 19, in the Central Library at 8:00 P.M.

Television, by Philip B. Fendt, John C. Bremmer, and Charles W. Kramer, will be the topic of the debate. The committee is composed of Robert W. Kazam, chairman, Mr. John G. McNutt, and Bert E. Peis, president.
