THE TECH
Tuesday, December 2, 1941

For Boys To Play
by Stewart Howe and Joseph Tannous

December has come, and with it comes play and Musicalian re-gates. In the spirit of the season were the numerous parties that filled the social calendar for this long weekend.
In case you hadn't heard, the Dleta Phi's beer party surpassed all its expectations, but to a superlative dergree. Charlie Coles seemed to be having a particularly good time, in deed, to the advantage of any activity to hold its own. The high standards we expected of this Technology party are in evidence.
Christmas parties are shaping up in various fraternity houses, plans being laid for midnight and stuff from the Fraternity to Memorial Drive. With the rather flexible tune for the opening of Christmas vacation, most houses are setting their Christmas parties for the weekend of the 12th and 13th. This is all in line with what we like to see, Christmas decorations and singing and candlelight and mistletoe-act of "conditioning" for the long hard vacation.
Not to be forgotten on the coming weekend are two operas in Technology's winter opera Department. Both of them on Friday night are from the sorority world. From men and outsiders will attend. The student opera is at the Kappa Sig Auditorium on the west side of the Boston Garden. At the Kappa Sig
Auditorium on the west side of the Boston Garden.
As usual, no less than nine—yes, it is what we are mighty proud of, the interest to Technology men are on the dodger for this weekend.
In spite of the undoubtedly well-directed efforts of the Walker Memorial Committee to attract visitors to spread out dances and parties more evenly over weekends, and give this sort of thing social activity time on Friday and Saturday.

Piles of fraternity dany—tell you about those next time. The Dleta Phi's beer party surpassed all
its expectations, but to a superlative
dergree. Charlie Coles seemed to be having a particularly good time, in
deed, to the advantage of any activity
to hold its own. The high standards
we expected of this Technology party
are in evidence.
Christmas parties are shaping up
in various fraternity houses, plans
being laid for midnight and stuff
from the Fraternity to Memorial
Drive. With the rather flexible
tune for the opening of Christmas
vacation, most houses are setting
their Christmas parties for the
weekend of the 12th and 13th. This
is all in line with what we like to
see, Christmas decorations and singing and candlelight and mistletoe-
act of "conditioning" for the long
hard vacation.
Not to be forgotten on the coming weekend are two operas in Technology's winter opera Department. Both of them on Friday night
are from the sorority world. From
men and outsiders will attend. The
student opera is at the Kappa Sig
Auditorium on the west side of the
Boston Garden. At the Kappa Sig
Auditorium on the west side of the Boston Garden.
As usual, no less than nine—yes, it is
what we are mighty proud of, the
interest to Technology men are
on the dodger for this weekend.
In spite of the undoubtedly well-
directed efforts of the Walker Memorial Committee to attract visitors
to spread out dances and parties more

evenly over weekends, and give
this sort of thing social activity
time on Friday and Saturday.
Piles of fraternity dany—tell you about those next time. The

Dleta Phi's beer party surpassed all
its expectations, but to a superlative
dergree. Charlie Coles seemed to be
having a particularly good time, in
deed, to the advantage of any activity
to hold its own. The high standards
we expected of this Technology party
are in evidence.
Christmas parties are shaping up
in various fraternity houses, plans
being laid for midnight and stuff
from the Fraternity to Memorial
Drive. With the rather flexible
tune for the opening of Christmas
vacation, most houses are setting
their Christmas parties for the
weekend of the 12th and 13th. This
is all in line with what we like to
see, Christmas decorations and singing and candlelight and mistletoe-
act of "conditioning" for the long
hard vacation.
Not to be forgotten on the coming weekend are two operas in Technology's winter opera Department. Both of them on Friday night
are from the sorority world. From
men and outsiders will attend. The
student opera is at the Kappa Sig
Auditorium on the west side of the
Boston Garden. At the Kappa Sig
Auditorium on the west side of the Boston Garden.
As usual, no less than nine—yes, it is
what we are mighty proud of, the
interest to Technology men are
on the dodger for this weekend.
In spite of the undoubtedly well-
directed efforts of the Walker Memorial Committee to attract visitors
to spread out dances and parties more

evenly over weekends, and give
this sort of thing social activity
time on Friday and Saturday.