Magoun Gives Fourth Lecture

Subject of Talk To Be Delivered Today

Professor F. Alexander Magoun, author of numerous books on the subject of psychology, will give his fourth lecture on the pre-marriage period today at 3:30 in 4-M. The subject for this third address is "Period of Engagement."

"The period of engagement is an engagement of mankind," Professor Magoun stated, "no other mammal on this sphere has created a transatlantic period between bachelors and the actual mating."

This period of engagement, he added, is one of utmost importance, he claimed, because it allows both parties to make the problems of adjustment, meet their respective families, and finally determine whether or not they would face them in the future.

Magoun进而三月

During the month of March, numerous statistics compiled from many reports, Professor Magoun regards the following three reports as outstanding.

In states that require a five day period between issuance of marriage licenses and the actual civil ceremony, as per state law, licenses are dropped annually. Forty per cent of all unhappy marriages had no, or an extremely short period of engagement.

Speaker Will Outline U. S. Countermeasures To Thwart Thrusts By Axis Powers

The strategy of the Axis powers and the efforts of the United States to date and in the future, will be the topic of discussion tomorrow evening at the open forum to be held in Huntington Hall, Room 10-250.

Major Edward C. Harwood, of the Department of Military Science, is to open the discussion and explain the necessary countermeasures that the United States must adopt to thwart any possible plans, both by Axis and German, Italy, and Japan.

Questions Answered

After the talk, the audience outlined some possible uses of the observer in the future, and in order to avoid any military secrets, the major asked that questions be left in writing and submitted to him for discussion.

Second Dorm Dance Planned For Jan. 10

Informal Record Dance Is Repeated

In response to popular demand, the Sophomore Council will sponsor the second of its series of record dances, called the Second Dorm Dance. It is to be held in Huntington Hall from 8:00 P.M. till 12 midnight on Thursday, January 10. A "time check" will be made at 10:00 P.M. to ensure that those who do not wish to remain for the entire dance will be able to leave promptly.

"This dance is for the enjoyment of our students," said J. Henry Henderson, '42, chairman of the Sophomore Council. "We hope to have a good time and make this dance a success."
