GRADUATION VOL.

Carl T. Compton at a general con-on occasions of grave concern, all attend and pointing out that studies called.

carry-on as usual. The Classes scheduled for 11:05 will be eliminated by the abandonment of unessential courses.

fiat of doing its duty for Uncle!

)iscussed By

H ardwood

II augurating the first of a series,

'42, chairman of the Senior Week committee, when in-informal of the change of date and commencement ceremonies .

With the exception of the Pops concert, every event originally on the program can probably be 毛主席 possible substitutions for the affair, there may possibly be an available date added to the cal-cendar, or the Ball may be made

Referees to Be Present

The final decision for additional military training will be left to the asses of the Class of 1942 by holding a class referendum presenting a number of optional proposals for

J. T. Cox, '42, president of the Institute Committee, when questioned that the university will def-

The result was that the nation was prepared for the fateful weeks of April, 1917. In a talk illus-

The action of the faculty today

senior in many of the activities
the Army and the Navy,

Twentieth years ago, almost to
and the Ball may be

Senior Week To Be Better—Tyree;
Varsity Athletes May Suffer
Senior Week, although unde-

Referred to For Examination

The final decision for additional
military training will be left to the
ass of the Class of 1942 by holding
a class referendum presenting a
number of optional proposals for

J. T. Cox, '42, president of the Institute Committee, when ques-
tioned that the university will def-

The result was that the nation was
prepared for the fateful weeks of April, 1917. In a talk illus-

The action of the faculty today

senior in many of the activities
the Army and the Navy,

Twentieth years ago, almost to
and the Ball may be

Senior Week To Be Better—Tyree;
Varsity Athletes May Suffer
Senior Week, although unde-

Referred to For Examination

The final decision for additional
military training will be left to the
ass of the Class of 1942 by holding
a class referendum presenting a
number of optional proposals for

J. T. Cox, '42, president of the Institute Committee, when ques-
tioned that the university will def-

The result was that the nation was
prepared for the fateful weeks of April, 1917. In a talk illus-

The action of the faculty today

senior in many of the activities
the Army and the Navy,

Twentieth years ago, almost to
and the Ball may be