most urgent technological fields needed for successful prosecution of meteorologists, so that they may be very valuable.

No man who is planning his course or engineering courses to complete the professional requirements where conditions vary sufficiently.

from their functions effectively.

some important aspects of a technical knowledge in a technical laboratory. For this reason this problem is being inter-gifted students to continue with or engineering courses to complete subscription to situations in interested, and we shall direct our is in line with the best national interest, and we shall direct our

In this judgment we are sup-with recruitment of high grade sci-officials most actively concerned in professional program.

are primarily intended to give stu-

for our students are not actively en-we know only what we have throughout the nation,

for this year's senior class
(Continued from Page 1)
(2) Substitution of special study
(Continued from Page 1)
(3) Thus far no change has been

Dr. Compton brought out in his talk is that the educational pro-

his most urgent actions

be brought up at this time for all arrangements to be made to be enrolled in this course.

by many of my colleagues. I do in his talk is that the educational proand our Faculty will defer action with the governmental agencies and armed forces. In or entrance examinations from the character of the student, and our resources of laboratories and for advanced study after graduaare probably the best of our ability

Dr. Compton brought out in his
talk is that the educational pro-

the best arrangements for all the Army Air Corps has requested us to spend our special training of meteorologists, as that they may be classified with the personnel of the Air Corps if they were available,

some changes will be made, so that these will not be so drastic as to weaken the quality of professional education in our scientific and engineering courses. Unlike most other types of colleges, our

the best arrangements for all

One of the most important actions Dr. Compton brought out in his
talk is that the educational pro-

be brought up at this time
for all arrangements to be made a young man does in this national emergency is a must and for his own experience and judgment, and there is one one pattern which is right for all, except the broad pattern in which all of us try to be at our best to discharge our several duties and abilities in directions which they are needed.

No man who is planning his course
or engineering courses to complete the
professional requirements where conditions vary sufficiently.

from their functions effectively.

some important aspects of a technical
knowledge in a technical laboratory. For
this reason this problem is being inter-

gifted students to continue with
or engineering courses to complete

needed for successful prosecution
of meteorologists, so that they may
be very valuable.

No man who is planning his course
or engineering courses to complete the
professional requirements where conditions vary sufficiently.

from their functions effectively.

some important aspects of a technical
knowledge in a technical laboratory. For
this reason this problem is being inter-

gifted students to continue with
or engineering courses to complete