SOPHOMORES:

The Activity For You

Vu wants writers, ad-getters, photographers. If you did not go out for an activity this year, now is your opportunity. Positions on associate board and managing board are open to those who want to do work. Don’t miss this chance to become identified with Technology’s newest publication.

Freshmen and juniors have an equal chance. Call Stew Rowe, Com. 8355, or come to Crafts Library tomorrow at 5:00 P.M.

Racquetsmen Top Trinity, Weslayan

(Continued from Page 1)

and Lou Stouse disposed of their Trinity, Wesleyan—of Johnnie Burdakin and Johnnie

That government studies show 3 out of 4 Americans need more vitamins and minerals. Have your picture taken—cost only a few cents a day.

Promises Announced

Will Act As Advisors

At a recent meeting of the Senior Ball scheduled for that

Friday, February 19, in Room 1-390, this lecture tion may be changed by the time gram, according to the latest rememebering the current of for 150:00. Varsity Basketball vs. B. U.—There.

5:00 P.M. Eta-Kappa Nu Meeting—Room 10-200.

3:00 P.M. Study Helps Lecture—Room 1-390.

5:00 P.M. Gridiron Meeting—Silver Em., Walker Memorial.

6:15 P.M. A. S. C. E. Meeting—Faculty Lounge.

6:15 P.M. A. S. T. E. Dinner Meeting—Pritchett Hall.

Exhibit Shows

Native Culture

CuriOs On Display

Comes From Morris’

Trip To South Seas

Now on exhibit in the Alumni Rogers’ Room at the Institute is an interesting collection of curios and objects of native work which Professor and Mrs. Frederick X. Morries brought back with them from the South Seas in 1938. Lending color to the exhibition are many paints by Professor Morris which show the flowering trees and abundance on these Islands. Other items which the Professor recorded and are on show include smoking vessals and small boxes with colored for the benefit of the freshman who were unable to attend.

Senior Week

(Continued from Page 1)

everyone give a swell time”. He added, “no matter what happens, this year’s Senior Week will be an affair that will always be remembered. The present Senior Week program, according to the latest reports available last night (the program may be changed if the time you read this is as follows: Friday, night, April 26, barn dance in the Thangore Gym; Saturday, Class Day and Aramial Day, with a tea dance in the afternoon; Sunday, Banalumatre served, with the stag banquet in the evening; Monday;

Commencement exercises in sympathy with. They will be expected correspondence to the editor. They will be expected to contribute suggestions to the editor in order that the editorials in this paper may be more truly representative of student opinion at the Institute. The members: Jr. G. Crumshank, Jr., former associate engraving editor; Burton B. Angel, Jr., former assistant photo-editor; Waldo F. Davis, Jr., new president of the 5:16 Club; Warren E. Foster, Jr., personal manager of Vol. LXI; Orville H. Hartman, Jr., advertising manager of Vol. LXI;

Robert J. Kraus, Jr., news editor of

Vol. LXI; Carlisle M. Laffoon, Jr.,

42, editor of Vol. LXI; William E.

Louden, Jr., 42, editor of Vol. LXI;

George C. Marx, Jr., Athletics-department Committee; Robert W.

Maxwell, Jr., Walker Memorial

Committee and vice president of the 5:16 Club; Walter C. McCarthy, Jr, engraving editor, Vol. LXI; John

W. McDonough, Jr., circulation manager, Vol. LXI; Robert B.

Ramsey, Jr., treasurer of the Interfraternity Council; and Robert J.

Schaefer, Jr., deck editor, Vol. LXI.

Hall, with Dr. Compton’s reception being held in the afternoon, and the Senior Ball scheduled for that evening, at the Hotel Statler. The Senior Ball will climax the last day of Senior Week—last week at Technolgy for about six hundred men—the Seniors, who are in the last term of their last year at

M.I.T.—(lucky souls).