is the one in which Mr. Smith, that inco-\cott ghost who arranged all the lectures that are going to open the door and enters just as Doctor Davis is about to speak, but by that time when viewing the tre-\mendous discoveries of the last century, the Professor never knows what a new and marvelous discovery is just around the corner.

To get away from it all, Pro-\essor Davis collects postage stamps and reads hundreds of books. His knowledge on incendiary bombs and its control together with his rare sense of humor, gave numerous lectures on the innern Department of Science, is also chairman of the Chemistry

September 22 to 27. The term has been called at various times during the summer, but not since September 25.

Two Summer Terms

Details of the schedule for the summer semester have not been announced yet, beyond the fact that the new term will be divided into two periods each of approximately seven weeks duration. The new Senior Class will meet for the first time on the dates of each summer session, and these will be no carryovers from the term to the Fall.

First-term subjects for seniors given in the Fall summer term will be listed in the Fall term, and second-term subjects given in the Fall will not be repeated for seniors in the Fall term, . .

Summer Work for Others

The Faculty also approved a pro-\gram that during the war period undergraduates of the Inst. Comm. be requested to obtain em-\n ployment in industry. For the men whose names were written on the election blanks. The following is a list of the names who will be
