19 Men Elected To Positions On The Tech

John T. Toland, '44, Out For Weekend Nominated To Jr. Board

Eighteen freshmen and one sophomor are elected to the Gadget Carnival which was held in the Walker Memorial last Wednesday evening. The Managing Board at its meeting on March 18, 1942, approved these elections, and accordgribly the election results were anounced in the News Room last night.

The lone Sophomore elected at this time is John T. Toland, who was appointed to the Junior Board as Associate Features Editor, by the six fraternities. The feature department of the paper since last October, Toland becomes the eight-"th member of the Junior Board of The Tech, and the third member of the Freshman class on the Features page, which has been recently expanded.

Freshmen elected as reporters were Bruce Fulham, Donley J. Parr, William E. Fink, John H. Kuryla, and Milton A. Widelitz, while Iris Kess Keller, '45, Robert M. Young, and elected as assistants in the engraving department. Elected to the Business Board as assistants in the Business Department were: Leslie

(Continued on Page 4)

5:15 To Hold Gadget Carnival

Fraternities, Dorms Invited To Submit Catalogue Machines

Robe Goldberg, Gadget Carnival, will be the theme of the annual 5:15 Club Social which is to be held in their Club Room in the basement of the Walker Memorial on Saturday, March 18. The students are invited to submit an entry in the contest of novelty research which has for its object, the performance of some simple task in as complicated a manner as possible "engineering" principles.

The dormitories, fraternity rooms and the 5:15 Club either of their own power or in-

Figure 2: The Tech, March 10, 1942

By Alpha Phi Omega To Hold Election Of New Officers

The Alpha Phi Omega Chapter of the Alpha Phi Omega collegiate housing fraternity, will hold elections at their meeting tomorrow night at 8 P.M. in the Tyler Room. The Nominations are: for president, Ernest C. Crooker, '43; vice-president, Robert B. Marx, '44; and Henry B. Bowes, '44; secretary, Albert J. Martin, '43; and treasurer, John J. Ebersberger, '43. The election are to be held in the Tyler Room at 8:30 on Wednesday, March 29. The prizes are to be a keg of beer to the winning group, a case of soda and a case of soft drinks for third. These gifts are decided upon by the committee as they do not feel that a third place winner can handle anything stronger.

Weekend Hailed As Success By Junior Prom Committee

Over 400 couples attended the Junior Prom Dance last Friday night in the Hotel Stater, and according to the committee the dance was a great success, at least socially. One faculty couple paid an indirect compliment when they remarked that more people danced than was usual at such large functions, a tribute to Tommy Tucker's orchestra and to the atmosphere surrounding the dance.

GAY COUPLE AT JUNIOR PROM

Pictures above are Robert W. Maxwell, '42, and his Miss Karen Kehlberg, whose election to the Junior Prom Committee was announced after this present conflict are

(Continued on Page 4)

I.F.C. TO HOLD "BATTLE OF MUSIC" At Hotel Stater Dance

Gay Party Spirit Expected at Event; Tickets At $5.00

On the theme of the annual dance this year the free music from Donand hand ar-

precaution against the swing of Harry Marvin, '42, for which according to the announcement made by Warren E. Foster, '43, chairman of the judges' committee, the musical war will last from 9:30 P.M. to 1:30 A.M. at the Imperial Ball Room of the Hotel Stater on Friday, March 27.

The idea has been adopted in an effort to reduce the excessive formalities which characterizes many Technology dances, and the plans are under consider-al and are being worked out.

Sic Bands are to play alternate harmonies, thus is meant that the competitive spirit between the realizing will overflow into the audience and make the affair a real "party-party."

Tickets Are Available To All

Although no date for ticket sales has been announced, the tickets will be re-

(Continued on Page 4)

Dorm Bull Session At 6:00 Tonight

Professors, Students To Dine And Grill At Informal Meeting

The school's second "bull dinner banquet" this evening at 6:00 P.M. in Peabody Hall, over thirty-

(Continued on Page 4)

Candidates For Office

Must Secure Enough

Candidates for the following executive offices in the Walker Memorial Building are eligible to be elected after the Student Assembly meeting on Thursday, March 12. Those recommended include: William O. Franklin, Gymnastics; John E. Gardner, Field Day; John E. Harper, Basketball; William Kitttredege, Lacrosse; Warren L. Kinnier, Equipment; Kenneth R. Wadleigh, Track, all of the Class of '43. The election to be held will be for the position of President of the M.I.T.A.A.

(Continued on Page 4)

Debaters, T.C.A.

Plan New Talks

Assembly Tomorrow Has As Discussion War Reconstruction

Preliminary agreements, one of the most pressing of modern political problems, will be the theme of a series of open-round table con-sferences sponsored jointly by the Debating Society and the T.C.A. Professor Theodore Smith, of the department of English, is to pro-

(Continued on Page 4)

M.I.T. A. A.

Nominates Six For President

Elections To Be Held March 24; Candidates Are From Many Sports

The Executive Committee of the I.E.T. Athletic Association has announced a list of six candidates who are recommended for nomin-

(Continued on Page 4)

Gay Party Spirit Expected at Event; Tickets At $5.00

On the theme of the annual dance this year the free music from Donand hand ar-

precaution against the swing of Harry Marvin, '42, for which according to the announcement made by Warren E. Foster, '43, chairman of the judges' committee, the musical war will last from 9:30 P.M. to 1:30 A.M. at the Imperial Ball Room of the Hotel Stater on Friday, March 27.

The idea has been adopted in an effort to reduce the excessive formalities which characterizes many Technology dances, and the plans are under consider-al and are being worked out.

Sic Bands are to play alternate harmonies, thus is meant that the competitive spirit between the realizing will overflow into the audience and make the affair a real "party-party."

Tickets Are Available To All

Although no date for ticket sales has been announced, the tickets will be re-

(Continued on Page 4)

Dorm Bull Session At 6:00 Tonight

Professors, Students To Dine And Grill At Informal Meeting

The school's second "bull dinner banquet" this evening at 6:00 P.M. in Peabody Hall, over thirty-

(Continued on Page 4)

Candidates For Office

Must Secure Enough

Candidates for the following executive offices in the Walker Memorial Building are eligible to be elected after the Student Assembly meeting on Thursday, March 12. Those recommended include: William O. Franklin, Gymnastics; John E. Gardner, Field Day; John E. Harper, Basketball; William Kitttredege, Lacrosse; Warren L. Kinnier, Equipment; Kenneth R. Wadleigh, Track, all of the Class of '43. The election to be held will be for the position of President of the M.I.T.A.A.

(Continued on Page 4)

Debaters, T.C.A.

Plan New Talks

Assembly Tomorrow Has As Discussion War Reconstruction

Preliminary agreements, one of the most pressing of modern political problems, will be the theme of a series of open-round table con-

sferences sponsored jointly by the Debating Society and the T.C.A. Professor Theodore Smith, of the department of English, is to pro-

(Continued on Page 4)

M.I.T. A. A.

Nominates Six For President

Elections To Be Held March 24; Candidates Are From Many Sports

The Executive Committee of the I.E.T. Athletic Association has announced a list of six candidates who are recommended for nomin-

(Continued on Page 4)

Gay Party Spirit Expected at Event; Tickets At $5.00

On the theme of the annual dance this year the free music from Donand hand ar-

precaution against the swing of Harry Marvin, '42, for which according to the announcement made by Warren E. Foster, '43, chairman of the judges' committee, the musical war will last from 9:30 P.M. to 1:30 A.M. at the Imperial Ball Room of the Hotel Stater on Friday, March 27.

The idea has been adopted in an effort to reduce the excessive formalities which characterizes many Technology dances, and the plans are under consider-al and are being worked out.

Sic Bands are to play alternate harmonies, thus is meant that the competitive spirit between the realizing will overflow into the audience and make the affair a real "party-party."

Tickets Are Available To All

Although no date for ticket sales has been announced, the tickets will be re-

(Continued on Page 4)