Senior A Hoosters Displace Goodale

In games played last night in the Beaver Key basketball tournament, Senior A beat the 5:15 Club, and Goodale defeated Phi Gamma Delta by a 27 to 25 score. Last Tuesday Sigma Alpha Epsilon won two, lost one; 5:15 Club won one, lost three; and Phi Gamma Delta, won one, lost three.

The journey should be over by tomorrow provided the scheduled game is not postponed, in which case it would be scheduled for some later date.

Irregulars Oppose U.S. Coast Guard
And Northeastern

The schedule of the Rifle team has been changed for the week- end. The match with United States Coast Guard Academy has been changed due to war conditions, from a shoulder to shoulder match to a pistol meet. As usual, all men will shoot, but the five top scorers will constitute Technology's bid for victory. All targets will be in by Saturday, March 21.

On Saturday from the Northeastern University Rifle team will be here to shoot against our ten-man team. Technology's rifle team has had an unusual season. Its sched- ule seriously disrupted by the war. The "win -lose-shoot" is nearly even, but our team has been improving steadily. The mainstay of the team are: Captain Groves, Gar- ret, Woodworth, Wood, Terry, Lorenzo, Adams, Weiminghall, and Hubser, who also vary in the capacity of team manager.
