Harry Marshard's Band

(Continued from Page 1)

Rev. W. H. Sharp
To Give Address
At T.C.A. Embassy

Under the supervision of Charles C. Holl, '42, the sixth annual T.C.A. Embassy is to be held on Wednesday, April 8. Holt announced that the main meeting, at which the Reverend Walter H. Sharp, Chief Ambassador, will deliver the address, will take place at 8:00 P.M. in the Huntingdon Hall, Room 10-8.

After this meeting each ambassador will be the guest of some foreign nation, dormitory, or the 5:15 Club. These dinners are to be accompanied by a "bull-session" on subjects pertaining to religion.

Plan Fraternity Dinners
Gary C. Meyers, Jr., '44, who is in charge of the fraternity dinners, announced that the first meeting held at Wednesday evening that representatives from twelve fraternities were present, a committee to plan their dinners was chosen. Meyer was appointed chairman of this committee whose function it is to see that the fraternities which were not represented at Wednesday's meeting plan to get some clergyman to attend at a meeting held last Wednesday at which representatives from twelve fraternities were present, to commit a plan for the dinner of the fraternity. His function is to secure its own ambassador.

In charge of the dormitory of the post-embassy dinners is Walter P. Swan. '42, "It is expected," Swan said, "that the undergraduate host of the Senior Ball, the Graduate House will each have its separate dinner and bull-session. The 5:15 Club is expected to have its dinner in the club room."

Saturday, March 21

Al-Tech Swim Trials—Alumni Pool.
Rifle Match vs. Northeastern—Rifle Range.
5:00 P.M. Debate vs. R. P. I.—Litchfield Lounge.

Sunday, March 22

Beaver Key Basketball — Senior A v. Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
2:30 P.M. Al-Tech Swim Finals—Alumni Pool.

Monday, March 23

5:00 P.M. Elections Forum—Huntingdon Hall.