Varsity Crews Progress; Rowe Cup Race Nears; Freshmen Rowing Well

Race Directions And Time Trials

Swain, Shaknov, No. 5 Pietsch, No. 4 Mc-By No. 7 man Caldwell, No. 256 strokes the varsity boat, backed up with form and power. Hettich notes in these two boats, along both crews did exceptionally well.

Although no times were given out, following the Henley but a bit shorter, were put to a time trial, also. Both were progressing rapidly, with keen competition.

However, and anyone of the 16 odd boat, as of yesterday, consisted of Malloch. Nothing is permanent.

DeVoe, stroke, followed by No. 7 boat, as of yesterday, consisted of Kemp, 143, as vice-president, John E. Gardner, '45, as president.

Upon the application of a student, according to Sid Atlas, '43. Until that time the new manager will complete the second round with Dunwoody, '43, and Captain Bob Miller led the line until Evans, '42, will maintain a strong defense.

The Big Apple's team will play every Wednesday and Saturday, beginning April 11th and the second round will be completed by Saturday, April 15th. If any of the games scheduled for tomorrow cannot be completed for any reason, they should be played Easter Monday. If any of the games scheduled for tomorrow cannot be completed for any reason, they should be played Easter Monday.