John Gardner
Elected Head of Committee

Student-Faculty Head
Former Manager Of Annual Field Day

John R. Gardner, Jr., '43, was announced as the new designee of the Student-Faculty Committee earlier this morning by the Institutions Committee at its meeting yesterday.

The Student-Faculty Committee is an organization made up of nine undergraduates and nine members whose job it is to survive problems arising between students and the faculty. It should foster constructive criticism concern- ing classes of instruction, promote cooperation between the undergraduate and their instruc- tors, and make suggestions to further the student body.

The Student-Faculty Committee is a Class A activity, the chairmen- ship of which rotates within the student body as selected by the Student Committee. Gardner has recently been elected to the chairmanship of the Student Committee.

The new president was elected by the Students Committee at its last meeting but was refused a seat on the Student Committee.
