Gill Dodds, outstanding miler and captain of the Harvard track team, has been named to compete in the 1,500-meter run at the Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Dodds, who holds the American record in the event, will be one of the favorites for the gold medal.

Softball Finals At Fen Stadium

Sigma Alpha Epsilon Will Play Sigma Nu

Next Sunday afternoon the final game of this year's east coast softball tournament will be played. Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Nu will play for the championship. The game will be played at Fen Stadium.

The New England Intercollegiate Crew Association will invade Briggs Field on Wednesday, May 20, when the annual regatta for all colleges in the New England area will be held. The races will start at 5:15 P.M. on the Basin.

FIRESTABLE WALLS

The races will be won by the best crew, and will be divided into four classes: 150 lb. rowers, 150 lb. four-oars, 180 lb. four-oars, and 220 lb. eight-oars. Each crew will race twice, and the best time will be used to determine the winner.

OFFICIALS' SHIRTS AND SHOES

The officers of the crew association will be chosen by the members of the schools entering crews. The officers will be in charge of the racing and will be responsible for the conduct of the regatta.

VETERANS DAY 1943

The regatta will be officially opened by the presentation of letters, numbers, and flags to the veterans of World War I. The presentation will be made by the American Legion, and will be followed by a presentation of letters to the veterans of World War II.

The regatta will be followed by a picnic at the Institute, and all members of the crew association are invited to attend.
