neal is to be available at a later date to meet the demands of the post-war reconstruction period.

The new undergraduate course at Technology, under the direction of Professor Adams, includes preparatory subjects in engineering and in natural and social sciences with the object of developing in the students an understanding of basic principles and relationships. The content of the third and fourth years is primarily technical in character with emphasis on the economic and administrative aspects, but the student exists and to impress upon them their responsibility as students at the Institute.

The guest speaker of the evening, Commander Louis deForest, '11, Bureau of Aeronautics, U.S.N., then spoke to the P.E.N. Club. Dean W. M. Bunker, chairman of the M.I.T. Safety Committee, discussed the regulations which have been imposed on and by the Institute due to the exigencies of war.

The Freshman Smoker Phillips Book Store offers a very wide selection of used books. Why not look over our stock before investing in books for the fall term.
