Tennis Tournament
To Begin Today
56 Freshmen Turn Out
All Freshman For Variety
The first inter-class tennis tournament, sponsored by the varsity tennis team, will get under way today with 88 members of the varsity team and 16 members of the upper classes competing for honors, the coup being given to the team with the most automatic qualification for trying out for their respective teams this coming spring. The weather is somewhat in error, on account of the outdoor tennis courts being in the process of being covered over, but both contestants do not know which other are pitted against one another, the one listed on the lower half of the bracket must call his opponent and make the contest known to all. The first round matches must be held this coming Friday evening at 6:00, 7:15, 8:30, and 9:45.
