Tars Win First Regatta And Tie For Winner With Harvard In Second

Tech Sailors Sought Opposing Teams

Winning the first regatta and tying the second one for first, place, the Tech sailing team officially opened its sailing season with a two-team meeting at the Coast Guard Academy, New London, Connecticut, on Friday, October 16. In the event, the first race the slummy men took first place in, 2-1, Provincetown, Salem against Brown, Coast Guard Academy, Pennsylvania, and Williams.

In their second encounter, the Greenwich, Regatta, they met on the Charles River Basin against Boston College, Boston University, Harvard, Northeastern, Tufts, and Community S.A. The boys tied Harvard for first place with a total of 71 points and Community S.A. followed with 63 points.

The following is a list of teams in the Quadrangular Regatta:

1. Tech
2. Northeastern
3. Harvard
4. Tufts
5. Community S.A.
6. Boston College
7. William and Mary
8. Massachusetts Institute of Technology
9. Boston University
10. Yale

The same team that raced last week, Skippack Sam Perkins, 45, and his star men, 43, will again race in this event at 1:00 p.m.

Coach George Owen, manager of the Tech team, briefly stated a few items that were discussed.

The hockey rally, held last Wednesday night, October 14, proved to be quite a success in that a total of 163 people attended, including the new coach, George Owen, Captain Fred Darby, and several of the players. Darby introduced the essential points of practice and training for the team.

It was announced that all members of the squad are required to report at the Boston Arena on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings at 8:00 A.M., starting November 2. "This early," explained Coach Owen, "should not scare any fellow who wants to play hockey, because it is merely a matter of acclimating oneself to the early and getting the proper amount of sleep.

Some beginning exercises were demonstrated to the new-comers, included stretching out and swimming. These were recommended to help pre-season training. Running, however, was demonstrated to the new-comers, with the large freshmen class.

The freshmen were promised a schedule with weeks in the vicinity if enough enthusiasm men turn out to interest a good team. Coach Owen said that this could well be set up within the first week if properly interested could be procured. All men who are interested in the sport are urged to come and practice.

The following is a list of games and the scores: Beijing B. vs. Beijing A. 63 points; Community S.A. vs. Beijing, 49 points and Community S.A. vs. Beijing, 49 points. The boys tied Harvard, 51 points, last week because space is extremely limited.

Each team will furnish its own equipment, and the ages of the players are unlimited. Only on Tuesday, October 19, 1:30, that the first of the Tech hockey team will go to the Boston Arena for the first time and the final cut was made.

The hockey team is limited to 15 men on the team. This applies to all coaches and officials. One does not have to be a senior to be on the team.
