Field Day Runners Closely Matched

The figures taken of the runners on the paper appear to show a slight edge over theＢＰｈｉ as the relay teams stand up for Field Day according to Oved Heneghan, meet director.

Both groups of men have been working hard in preparation for the race, putting in work each week as well as trying out for positions on the 400th team in which 25 Heneghan is seeking to represent their class in the Annual during the next month. All are requested by Coach Heneghan to report for the first work-

Basketball Squads Train Vigorously

New Field Day Event Draws Much Attention

According to recent reports the Field Day basketball games promise to be the biggest standout events of the day.

"Basketball has been added to the Field Day Program for the first time this year by decision of the following board of trustees. The Board will determine three points in the scoring otherwise the same as before. The ability of a tie which existed last year. It is to be held in Walter Memorial Gym, where bleachers are going to be placed to hold the crowd.

Both squads are practicing vigoro-ing and cleaning up well under the tutelage of George Marakas, '43, who is the Skipper of the crew and Tom "Red" Dell, Gig, who is the Manager. The Heneghan crew when the B.P.H. shows seemed and favored a combination to beat because of their speed. Although the B.P.H. are favored the crew will not be looking to them. The Heneghan crew has some secret plays and a new "flattening of man in man," according to Coach George Marakas, which may prove a handicap to the B.P.H.

The goal of the crew is to win the Championship, and the six crew members are backed with the same spirit with which they are practicing.

Background on the new guide will begin 2:30 and at 4:00 respectively.
