Sunday Tea Is Held In Dorms
Faculty And Students Meet In Burton Room
At 5 p.m. on Thursday, November 5, students and faculty members met for tea in Burton Room. The tea was held to celebrate the opening of the dormitory and to give students an opportunity to meet and chat with some of their fellow dorm dwellers.

Field Day Dance

Tickets, at $0.50 per couple, were sold out almost one week in advance of the dance, and there were several last minute sales. The lounge bar and Prichett Hall were open to serve refreshments exclusively to the dancers. For those who wished to show their support of the dancers, the Dormitory Committee had arranged open houses from 1:30 P.M. until 12:00 midnight.

F.C.A. Plans Work Camp
For Westwood, Saturday
A work camp will be held on November 7 and at the camp in Westwood owned by the Jefferson Point Boys' Club. Students from two of the Greater Roxon colleges will be present as well as Tech College men.

The first group will leave for the camp at 9:00 A.M. on Saturday, and will be followed at 1:00 P.M. by the second group. The work will consist of cutting wood, putting up fences, and clearing new paths.

The cost of food (four meals and transportation) will come to a total of $2.60. All interested should get in touch with Gilbert K. Krulee, '45, in the T.C.A. office. "A barn dance is planned for Saturday evening," said Krulee.

House Men Wanted
In Bridge Tournaments
Several fraternity men were en- tered in the Bridge Club tournaments held on Saturday and Sunday, October 31 and November 1. Robert M. Field, '45, chairman, has expressed a hope that in the future even more will enter, as to date the tournaments have been about nineteen per cent dorm men and commuters.

The tournament on Saturday was won by Paul R. Sonnenblick, '45, Pi Lambda Phi, and Robert J. Murray, '45, Dormitovers; second were Lee C. Bridges, '45, and John W. Colban, '46, dorm men; and third, Edward E. Emerson, '45, and Ray White, '45.

Chemical Society To Hear Professor Harris Tonight
A lecture by Professor Robert B. Harris of the biology department will be the main feature of the Chemical Society meeting to be held at 8:00 P.M. tonight in Room 3-390. The meeting will be followed by a social get-together, at which refreshments will be served, and will end at 11:00 P.M.

The meeting is open to all members, and all non-members are urged to attend and join the Society at that time.

Dorm Football
