I. E. C. To Elect Officers At Next Meeting; Three Nominated For Chairman

Boschen, Bishop Bredt Named Last Night In Meeting

Elections for the officers of next year's Interfraternity Conference will be held at the next meeting, it was decided at the meeting of the Conference last night. In line with usual procedure, nominations were accepted for the offices of chairman, and it was announced that names nominated would be asked to make a short speech at the next meeting. Nominations for other offices will be made at the next meeting. These are for secretary, treasurer, and committee chairman.

The men nominated for the office of chairman last night were Walter Ambrose, William G. Bredt, '44, and William H. Bredt, '45. Other nominations for this office for the coming elections and any men nominated at that time will be required to make a speech as it is stipulated in the charter.

Last night's meeting was held at the Smith House on Memorial Drive, and was attended by the usual number of holding meetings in one of the dormitories.

All Welcome At Parties

Present Chairman Warren E. Fink, '44, announced that the cocktail parties being held by the Frosh Fraternity of the Institute are open to all members of the Institute, both students and faculty. Each Frosh Fraternity, Junior Prom Committee's attempt to have them sound like a function for only those attending the Junior Prom, Fink added. He stressed the fact that these parties, last year, were sponsored one-half by the Junior Prom committee and the latter feeling between the fraternity and the Institute and other groups.

A committee was appointed to hold the next meeting, the purpose of which is to be decided by the Frosh Fraternity for the I.F.C. This committee, made up of representatives from each of the fraternities, will supervise the parties at the various places in the Institute and will be paid according to the I.F.C.'s plans. They will also have charge of parties held at places other than those sponsored by the I.F.C. The other members of this committee are: George B. DeVoe, '44, and Martin B. Judge, Jr.

It was also announced by the Dance Committee that five options on the Elster Balloon have been made in order to give the I.F.C. some of their share of votes for the I.F.C. banquet. This is to be held sometime in the second term.

Compton's Picture Lent To Painter

For several weeks now the portrait of President Karl T. Compton has been a common sight in the Institute. It was placed in the Lobby of Building 11 on display. However, last night it was lent to the Institute's Office of the Museum of Fine Arts, the show is called "The Work of the Outstanding Living Artist and Portrait." The portrait was comissioned several years ago by the Corporation and presented to the Institute upon its completion. The show was opened October 21.

Frog Surprised By Unscheduled M. S. Marathon

Many of the freshmen are taking an elective hour of military science and the first year's compulsory physical training requirements. They were all very con-

A committee was appointed to hold the next meeting, the purpose of which is to be decided by the Frosh Fraternity for the I.F.C. This committee, made up of representatives from each of the fraternities, will supervise the parties at the various places in the Institute and will be paid according to the I.F.C.'s plans. They will also have charge of parties held at places other than those sponsored by the I.F.C. The other members of this committee are: George B. DeVoe, '44, and Martin B. Judge, Jr.

It was also announced by the Dance Committee that five options on the Elster Balloon have been made in order to give the I.F.C. some of their share of votes for the I.F.C. banquet. This is to be held sometime in the second term.

Compton's Picture Lent To Painter

For several weeks now the portrait of President Karl T. Compton has been a common sight in the Institute. It was placed in the Lobby of Building 11 on display. However, last night it was lent to the Institute's Office of the Museum of Fine Arts, the show is called "The Work of the Outstanding Living Artist and Portrait." The portrait was comissioned several years ago by the Corporation and presented to the Institute upon its completion. The show was opened October 21.

Frog Surprised By Unscheduled M. S. Marathon

Many of the freshmen are taking an elective hour of military science and the first year's compulsory physical training requirements. They were all very con-

A committee was appointed to hold the next meeting, the purpose of which is to be decided by the Frosh Fraternity for the I.F.C. This committee, made up of representatives from each of the fraternities, will supervise the parties at the various places in the Institute and will be paid according to the I.F.C.'s plans. They will also have charge of parties held at places other than those sponsored by the I.F.C. The other members of this committee are: George B. DeVoe, '44, and Martin B. Judge, Jr.

It was also announced by the Dance Committee that five options on the Elster Balloon have been made in order to give the I.F.C. some of their share of votes for the I.F.C. banquet. This is to be held sometime in the second term.

Compton's Picture Lent To Painter

For several weeks now the portrait of President Karl T. Compton has been a common sight in the Institute. It was placed in the Lobby of Building 11 on display. However, last night it was lent to the Institute's Office of the Museum of Fine Arts, the show is called "The Work of the Outstanding Living Artist and Portrait." The portrait was comissioned several years ago by the Corporation and presented to the Institute upon its completion. The show was opened October 21.

Frog Surprised By Unscheduled M. S. Marathon

Many of the freshmen are taking an elective hour of military science and the first year's compulsory physical training requirements. They were all very con-

A committee was appointed to hold the next meeting, the purpose of which is to be decided by the Frosh Fraternity for the I.F.C. This committee, made up of representatives from each of the fraternities, will supervise the parties at the various places in the Institute and will be paid according to the I.F.C.'s plans. They will also have charge of parties held at places other than those sponsored by the I.F.C. The other members of this committee are: George B. DeVoe, '44, and Martin B. Judge, Jr.

It was also announced by the Dance Committee that five options on the Elster Balloon have been made in order to give the I.F.C. some of their share of votes for the I.F.C. banquet. This is to be held sometime in the second term.

Compton's Picture Lent To Painter

For several weeks now the portrait of President Karl T. Compton has been a common sight in the Institute. It was placed in the Lobby of Building 11 on display. However, last night it was lent to the Institute's Office of the Museum of Fine Arts, the show is called "The Work of the Outstanding Living Artist and Portrait." The portrait was comissioned several years ago by the Corporation and presented to the Institute upon its completion. The show was opened October 21.

Frog Surprised By Unscheduled M. S. Marathon

Many of the freshmen are taking an elective hour of military science and the first year's compulsory physical training requirements. They were all very con-

A committee was appointed to hold the next meeting, the purpose of which is to be decided by the Frosh Fraternity for the I.F.C. This committee, made up of representatives from each of the fraternities, will supervise the parties at the various places in the Institute and will be paid according to the I.F.C.'s plans. They will also have charge of parties held at places other than those sponsored by the I.F.C. The other members of this committee are: George B. DeVoe, '44, and Martin B. Judge, Jr.

It was also announced by the Dance Committee that five options on the Elster Balloon have been made in order to give the I.F.C. some of their share of votes for the I.F.C. banquet. This is to be held sometime in the second term.

Compton's Picture Lent To Painter

For several weeks now the portrait of President Karl T. Compton has been a common sight in the Institute. It was placed in the Lobby of Building 11 on display. However, last night it was lent to the Institute's Office of the Museum of Fine Arts, the show is called "The Work of the Outstanding Living Artist and Portrait." The portrait was comissioned several years ago by the Corporation and presented to the Institute upon its completion. The show was opened October 21.