Swim Trials Foretell Keen Team Competition As Fall Meet Nears

Trials Show Team To Be Well-Balanced

With the first meet scheduled with R.P.I. Dec. 5, the results of the time trials, which took place last week in the pool proved very interesting to Coach Gordon Smith and foretell some keen competition among the varsity teams.

In the breaststroke events, Knodel and Cochran, although swimming in different heats were bracketed at exactly the same time. This should prove to be interesting competition in the final meet. The other members of last year’s breaststroke team and the medley relay team that broke the pool record for freshmen. Gordon Findlay. Also, last year’s frosh team, has come very much to the fore this season, and is expected to set a new team this season.

Frenchie LaCroix in Bush Bass Ross and D. W. Smith have shown their ability in the 350-yard dash, with Jack McDermott threatening to take the place away from one of the two. Dick Bressler, or rather Fidlar Bressler—will hold up the quarter mile with no competition from the likes of Pfizen, Crookshank, or Schierbaurn as his teammates.

This team will certainly prove not only very interesting to watch, but the whole squad, is a solid characteristic, with its reliability, stamina, and speed.

There is a good field out for the sprinters. Foust, of course, and Ross and Bressler will probably play off one another in the 100-yard dash.
