Russian Relief
Dance Tomorrow
Ruby Newman Orchestra
To Play in Walker

Thursday, December 4, at 8:00 P.M., the Winter Festival of the Russian War Relief Committee will be held in Memorial. Those who attend will dance to the sparkling music of Ruby Newman's orchestra.

This is the second dance to be given for Russian War Relief this year, following the successful Winter Festival, many girls, including ninety-seven from Wellesley, were assigned to the Russian War Weather Bureau in the grading program last September. Students at the graduating classes included Colonial Clyde V. Fitch, commanding officer of the Boston Army Air Force Division School Area; Colonel Paul L. Johnston, former commander of the Southern Massachusetts Fourth Weather Region; and Professor Henry G. Houghton, who supervised the students' meteorological course at the Institute.
