New Senior Board Of The Tech Announced; Field, Rabinowitz, Gallivan, Meyer, To Run Paper

General A. Waitt
And Dean Lobell
Speak At Dinner

Lamar Field, Jr., was named General Manager of The Tech, Volume XXIII, Number 14, on Saturday, December 9, 1943, at 6:00 PM, in the Memorial Union Room. The Tech, a weekly publication of the University of Maine, is published on Fridays during the academic year.

Newly elected Managing Board of The Tech. From left to right, Marion M. Weyere, Jr., '44, Business Manager, James E. Gallivan, Jr., '44, Managing Editor, Lamar Field, Jr., General Manager, Benjamin Rabinowitz, and Ray Rabinowitz, '44, Managing Editor, and Mor- ten McLean, '44, Assistant Business Manager. The elections to the other boards of the paper were also announced and the winners of the freshmen news and sports department competitions were disclosed.

Those who attended the affair were Brigadier General Allan H. Chalmers, '42, and Robert S. Lobell, who addressed the students on their experiences at the Institute some years ago, when the United States entered the war.

Elected to the associate board were: Milton A. Wightman, '43, news editor; H. Bruce Patrick, Jr., '44, desk editor; Dean J. P. Farr, '44, art editor; William E. Boss, Jr., '44, sports editor; and Gordon H. Skenes, '45, assistant editor.

(Continued on Page 4)

Draft Registration
To Start Dec. 11

18 Year Olds To Sign;
Others On Birthdays

All youths who became 18 years old during July and August of last year must register for the draft between December 11 and 18. Commuting students should register at their local draft boards; but those living away from home may register at any draft board nearest their place of residence.

Those who had their 18th birthdays after August 1st should register in sections at later dates through- out their first year. All registrations will be published in the December, 1943, issue of The Tech.

Those students who have joined the armed forces or are registered as they are considered already in the army.

Christian Fellowship
To Hear Rev. Huffman

Rev. John A. Huffman, pastor of the Corinthian Church, Cambridge, will be the speaker at a special meeting of the M.E. Chris- tian Fellowship at 5:00 P.M. to 6:00 P.M. on Wednesday, December 9, in Room 7127, Memorial Union Room. This meeting is open to all.

(Continued on Page 4)