J. F. C. Elections

To Be Held Thurs.

This Thursday at 6:30 P.M. in the C3-121 Room in the Inter-Fraternity Conference will hold their meeting for the election of officers. Nominees for chaplain have already been accepted by the other fraternities. Nominations will be continued just before the elections. The elections will follow and the names of those nominated will be given for the position of chaplain: War- ren A. Bradley, '44, William H. Breuk- en, '44, William H. Brest Dl, '44. Those students and those other students who are not nominated tonight will not have a chance to be elected as officers of any other fraternity. Treasurer and Secretary, Irwan M. Jennes, '45, will also be made on this night.

More Street Cars Added

To Aid Student Travel

For the convenience of students and others, the Boston Elevated Railway is providing at the Albany魔术 Ending car, which will go to Harvard and General squares between 4:10 and 5:10 P.M.

This has been done in an attempt to relieve the congestion at the stops. The number of cars has been increased recently by the addition of two because of the increased demand for transportation.

Kappa Nu Initiation

EE 1.7. Summer Surveying Camp

The Office of Education has recently been increased from three to five, as the large crowd of students interested in this program has increased.
