Dormitory Committee Sponsored Xmas Dance In Walker Tonight

TUESDAY night at 9:00 P.M. in the Walker Lounge will be held the annual Christmas dance sponsored by the Dormitory Committee. All the members of the various dormitories are invited and are requested to attend.

Catholic Club Has Dance Tomorrow

The M.I.T. Catholic Club will sponsor a dinner-dance Saturday night, Dec. 12, 1:30-3:00 P.M. Student representatives present at the meeting last night were: chairman, E. G. MacAdam, and John K. Smith (replacing the absent Fred C. Bower). The dance is free to all students and all the facilities of the hall will be available.

Spanish Club Will Hold Xmas Dance

El Grupa de Habla Espanola of M.I.T. is sponsoring a Christmas dance to be held in Phillips Ocean at 8:00 P.M. This is an all-conference dance. Invitations are open to members of all other departments.

Drill Companies Honor Late Cadet

In respect to the memory of the late Cadet, George A. Magee, the various drill companies under M.I.T. command have resolved to take part with the Institute Administration in the service of the United Nations. The entire personnel of the freshman and junior drill companies observed a full minute's silence last Wednesday afternoon.

Walker Memorial Comm. Rules No More Dances

Distribution of the December issue of the Walker Memorial Comm. has once again been temporarily postponed. It was expected that the magazine would be available in time for Christmas, but it proved impossible. However, another issue will be ready in time so the dance committee has decided that the magazine would definitely appear next month.

Debaters To Meet Vermont Today

Federal Union Question Will Be Discussed

The annual debate is scheduled to take place on the evening of January 5 and the Combined Masonic Clubs' glee club committee with Simmons Club will provide the music and entertainment.

Dormitory Committees are still preparing for Christmas social season with a combined Musical Club's glee club concert. The night before tomorrow, Nov. 21, the Bar will be open for dancing until 1:30 A.M. to reduce the admission price, payable at the door, is 50 cents. The dance is free to all students and all the facilities of the hall will be available.
