Outing Club To Be In Square Dance

The Intercollege Outing Club Association is holding an L.O.C.C.A. Corbett Square Dance from 8:00 P.M. till 11:00 P.M. tonight at the Harvard Memorial Opera House. Alan A. Smith, graduate student calling, Thomas M. 1.55, $0.00 to $0.30 a person, are still in this afternoon from 11:00 P.M. to 11:30 P.M. at the Oui- ing Club house in the basement of Walker Memorial. Members may bring dates, but couples have two tickets.

A Christmas Ski Trip is being planned for the ski enthusiasts in the club who are interested may sign up now at the Office of Building 10 on the Ouling Club bulletin board there.

In the Infirmary

Homberg

Stevan H. Brown '44
James O. Connor '44
Miss Eleanor R. Dean '46
Paul Massagli '44
Alexander J. Orey '45
Theodore P. Rafter '45
Lethal R. Riferer '44
Professor Charles H. E. Mekle
Brooks Hospital
Dana P. Aitken

Basketball

The frosh cagers continued in their winning ways when they subduced the Lowell Jayvees in their second win in as many starts. The final score stood at 40-23. Coach Taylor displayed much better form than the frosh are con-

idered. The McCarthy men showed much more strength and stamina than was expected against the Chalabas in their initial game, and though fairly seriously threatened, they held a substantial lead throughout most of the fray. Outstanding feature of the play of the boys from Lowell was the speed of their attack.

The lineup for Tech consisted of Dolan, Brodie, Marzuka, Teit and Backschlager with Whitten, Del Valle, Hillhouse and Hart substituting. The Tech eagles continued in their winning ways when they sub-

duced the Lowell Jayvees in their second win in as many starts. The final score stood at 40-23. Coach Taylor displayed much better form than the frosh are con-

idered. The McCarthy men showed much more strength and stamina than was expected against the Chalabas in their initial game, and though fairly seriously threatened, they held a substantial lead throughout most of the fray. Outstanding feature of the play of the boys from Lowell was the speed of their attack.

The lineup for Tech consisted of Dolan, Brodie, Marzuka, Teit and Backschlager with Whitten, Del Valle, Hillhouse and Hart substituting. The frosh cagers continued in their winning ways when they sub-

duced the Lowell Jayvees in their second win in as many starts. The final score stood at 40-23. Coach Taylor displayed much better form than the frosh are con-

idered. The McCarthy men showed much more strength and stamina than was expected against the Chalabas in their initial game, and though fairly seriously threatened, they held a substantial lead throughout most of the fray. Outstanding feature of the play of the boys from Lowell was the speed of their attack.