Senior Elections Out
As Lack of Class Interest
Effects Few Nominations

Annapolis, Md., December 13.- As a result of the final meeting of the elections committee, announced last night, Lack of interest within the class of 1943 resulted in a small number of nominations being turned in. George T. Whipple, Chairman of the election committee, speaking for the class of 1943, asked for the return of the election committee to the class of 1943 to be considered at the next meeting of the class of 1943.

Junior Class Nominations

President
L. A. H. Flowers

Second Secretary
M. A. Schacht

Secretary-Treasurer
R. D. Marakas

Institute Committee

Robert A. Plachta

L. J. S. Carolly

Frank E. Carroll

Robert A. McNeil

McNeil Extends Broad Authority Over Nation

McNeil Extends Broad Authority Over Nation

As Manpower Director

A Midwinter Night's Dream

An annual banquet was held in the Hotel Kenmore on Thursday, December 13, in honor of the class of 1943. Following the banquet, a drawing was held to select the winner of the annual scholarship.

As a result of the final meeting of the election committee, announced last night, Lack of interest within the class of 1943 resulted in a small number of nominations being turned in. George T. Whipple, Chairman of the election committee, speaking for the class of 1943, asked for the return of the election committee to the class of 1943 to be considered at the next meeting of the class of 1943.

Midnight Tonight Ends Enlistments In Reserve Corps

As Lack of Class Interest
Effects Few Nominations

As a result of the final meeting of the election committee, announced last night, Lack of interest within the class of 1943 resulted in a small number of nominations being turned in. George T. Whipple, Chairman of the election committee, speaking for the class of 1943, asked for the return of the election committee to the class of 1943 to be considered at the next meeting of the class of 1943.

As Lack of Class Interest
Effects Few Nominations

As a result of the final meeting of the election committee, announced last night, Lack of interest within the class of 1943 resulted in a small number of nominations being turned in. George T. Whipple, Chairman of the election committee, speaking for the class of 1943, asked for the return of the election committee to the class of 1943 to be considered at the next meeting of the class of 1943.

As Lack of Class Interest
Effects Few Nominations

As a result of the final meeting of the election committee, announced last night, Lack of interest within the class of 1943 resulted in a small number of nominations being turned in. George T. Whipple, Chairman of the election committee, speaking for the class of 1943, asked for the return of the election committee to the class of 1943 to be considered at the next meeting of the class of 1943.

As Lack of Class Interest
Effects Few Nominations

As a result of the final meeting of the election committee, announced last night, Lack of interest within the class of 1943 resulted in a small number of nominations being turned in. George T. Whipple, Chairman of the election committee, speaking for the class of 1943, asked for the return of the election committee to the class of 1943 to be considered at the next meeting of the class of 1943.

As Lack of Class Interest
Effects Few Nominations

As a result of the final meeting of the election committee, announced last night, Lack of interest within the class of 1943 resulted in a small number of nominations being turned in. George T. Whipple, Chairman of the election committee, speaking for the class of 1943, asked for the return of the election committee to the class of 1943 to be considered at the next meeting of the class of 1943.

As Lack of Class Interest
Effects Few Nominations

As a result of the final meeting of the election committee, announced last night, Lack of interest within the class of 1943 resulted in a small number of nominations being turned in. George T. Whipple, Chairman of the election committee, speaking for the class of 1943, asked for the return of the election committee to the class of 1943 to be considered at the next meeting of the class of 1943.

As Lack of Class Interest
Effects Few Nominations

As a result of the final meeting of the election committee, announced last night, Lack of interest within the class of 1943 resulted in a small number of nominations being turned in. George T. Whipple, Chairman of the election committee, speaking for the class of 1943, asked for the return of the election committee to the class of 1943 to be considered at the next meeting of the class of 1943.

As Lack of Class Interest
Effects Few Nominations

As a result of the final meeting of the election committee, announced last night, Lack of interest within the class of 1943 resulted in a small number of nominations being turned in. George T. Whipple, Chairman of the election committee, speaking for the class of 1943, asked for the return of the election committee to the class of 1943 to be considered at the next meeting of the class of 1943.