Skiing, Hockey, Track Keep Tech Busy

Oscar Hedlund stands prepared for murder in case any of his boys fails to clear the hurdles.

Adatron High-Speed lights catch two Technology Menz men failing to prevent a goal try, leaving Ed Edmunds an easy stop. Arnold has just completed a valiant try while Dick Bettes stands behind him ready for a break. Northeastern won, 9-3.

At workout on the board track behind the swimming pool, Oscar vociferously emphasizes a point of style while runner Bob Meny looks on with amusement.

Again a Northeastern forward pounds a shot at Ed Edmunds. Technology's overworked goalie could not keep the tally down far enough to allow the team to stay in the lead. This was the second game with Northeastern this year, and the second defeat at their hands.