Dorm Officers Get Approval Of Inst. Comm.

Maxson To Represent Dorms At Institute Committee Meetings

At last evening's regular weekly meeting of the Institute Committee, the election of the officers of the Dormitory Committee and the confirmation of committee heads were approved. Mr. Carlisle, chairman, had been approved for the new Institute committee book, according to the latest announcement.

The new officers of the Dormitory committee are: Robert B. Metz, chairman; L. William Maxson, 44, vice-chairman; and F. C. Horizon, secretary.

The dormitory comprise the new committee, according to the last announcement.

Army Now Open to Men Seventeen

By New Regulation

E.R.C. Students Face Call Unless They Are Registered Next Term

Registration of all the Arm forces Representative at the Institute is the basic requirement in order to obtain a commission in the Army, according to the recent announcement. The regulation will be strictly enforced, and any soldier found to be in violation of the regulation may be subject to disciplinary action.

The Army Air Forces is the branch of the military which has the most to offer its personnel. It is a challenging and exciting field for those who have so far investigated this area of the military. However, interested individuals are encouraged to attend the upcoming registration sessions to learn more about the opportunities available in the Army Air Forces.

The registration sessions will be held on the campus, with additional sessions held in the various dormitories on different days.

T.C.A. will have already been approved by the Board of Trustees last night by Mr. Wallace M. Christiansen, general secretary.

Hull's Appointment As Soph President Passed By Solons

At the Institute Committee's regular meeting at 5:30 P.M. yesterday afternoon in Litchfield Lounge John F. Hull, '44, was re-elected as the vice-president of the class, for the second term. The meeting was the first at which the new officers for the coming year were installed. Hull had held five options on the charter Hall, 44, for the last two meetings, but further details of the dances were not revealed to the public.

Chairman Lewis Tyrer, Jr., of the Committee on Re-creation, held the meeting. No more persons are to be needed, it was announced to take advantage of the many opportunities available. It was also announced that the office of the Recreation Office before the beginning of the coming spring term.

The service will be held at 8:30 P.M., Tuesday afternoon, January thirty-first at three o'clock. The Benevolent Activity Committee will also be in attendance. The service will be held at the beginning of the coming spring term.

Treasurer of the Institute, is trying to get books for various libraries at the Institute. He is hopeful that the College of Technology professors. However, because of war commitments, it is impossible to do much this year. Instead, a series of dances will be held this year. Instead, a series of dances will be held throughout the year.

Tuition Must Be Paid Before February 4, 1943

Tuition and other fees due the second term are to be paid on or before February 4. Failure to mail the envelope must be postmarked no later than February 5.

As the spring semester ends next week, the Trustees will be facing. He also suggested that in all cases in which he is in charge of the committee, the committee would arrange to have tickets in hand, and the plans for the dances of the student staff, should be made.

The plans are proceeding as far as possible without signing any definite contracts or commitments. The student staff, in order that if by any chance the dance be to be held, they will not be required to stand any loss, are advised that the dance is to be held only if it is determined, and the Sophomore Prom Committee holds the option for the date which is being considered.

The band committee has also made thorough investigations into the orchestra situation, and has but to sign a contract in order to get a "dance band" for the dance.

Victory Books Are Exhibited Autographed Volumes Shown At Harvard Sq.

The Old Corner Book Store at Harvard Square is now the scene of an exhibit of new books donated to the Institute Victory Book Campaign. Among them are many first editions, and technical writing which are as rare as they are autographed.

Some of the Institute professors who have books in the exhibits are Professor Walter R. Hamilton, Associate Professor of Electrical Engineering; Professor C. A. Lord of the T.C.A. Book Exchange, asked to have the copies of all books sent to the various fraternities and dormitories in this drive. In a letter from Mr. T. W. Ford, director of the 1943 Victory Book Campaign, the drive is being advertised in the various dormitories, and in the dormitory bulletin boards.

The plans are proceeding as far as possible without signing any definite contracts or commitments. The student staff, in order that if by any chance the dance be to be held, they will not be required to stand any loss, are advised that the dance is to be held only if it is determined, and the Sophomore Prom Committee holds the option for the date which is being considered.

The band committee has also made thorough investigations into the orchestra situation, and has but to sign a contract in order to get a "dance band" for the dance.

T.C.A. To Help In Book Campaign

Cooperating with Mrs. Horace H. Ford, director of the 1943 Victory Book Campaign, the T.C.A. is acting as the receiving house for the books being donated to the Institute for any purpose as the organization sees fit. In a letter to the T.C.A. office, the director, Mrs. Ford, has written that the Institute and popular fiction books that are in good physical condition. The types were arranged in this order: "for the T.C.A. use only", then the name of the author, and finally the book title. Books that are not turned in are expected to be returned to the campus on the Institute Committee's request.

All Students May Obtain Commencement Tickets

Two tickets for the baccalaureate and graduation ceremonies will be given to each student, to mark the baccalaureate and graduation ceremonies.

The service will be held at the beginning of the coming spring term.

Treasurer of the Institute, is trying to get books for various libraries at the Institute. He is hopeful that the College of Technology professors. However, because of war commitments, it is impossible to do much this year. Instead, a series of dances will be held throughout the year.