Activities Notes

Alpha Phi Omega
The Technology chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, the national scouting service fraternity, is having an open dinner meeting at the Smith House at 4:30 P.M. on Monday, April 4. Everyone is invited to attend.

The National Secretary of Alpha Phi Omega, Sidney N. Smith, will be the speaker. The cost of the dinner will be $1.50, according to Charles Z. Hooker, Jr., 45, secretary of the chapter.

M.I.T. Debating Society
The M.I.T. Debating Society will participate in a debate with a team from Dartmouth University. The debate will be held at Litchfield Lounge. Members of the area are invited to attend.

On April 4, at 3:15 P.M., a debate between Technology and Physics will be broadcast on the stations of the University and the Yankee Network. William J. Colens, 43, and Lee Han, 45, will represent the University and will present the affirmative case of the federal union question.

The debate will be held at Rockefeller Stadium. Members of the area are invited to attend.

Hindustan Association
The Hindustan Association will hold a special meeting at 7:30 P.M. on Monday, April 5. All students are invited to attend.

The meeting will be held in Litchfield Lounge. The Association will hold a special meeting at 7:30 P.M. on Monday, April 5. All students are invited to attend.

Football will be held at 5:00 P.M. at the Harvard Stadium. Members of the Association are invited to attend.

Synoptic

In the Homberg Club at 1:45 P.M. on Wednesday, April 7

At the Haynes Memorial Hospital at 8:15 P.M. this afternoon, the general meeting in Room 6-120, all students are invited to attend.

Besides describing in prose and profile the means and methods of describing technological progress, the book is written in a manner which will interest the general reader. The Association will hold a special meeting at 7:30 P.M. on Monday, April 5. All students are invited to attend.

The Tech will be held at 5:00 P.M. at the Harvard Stadium. Members of the Association are invited to attend.

In the Homberg Club at 1:45 P.M. on Wednesday, April 7

At the Haynes Memorial Hospital at 8:15 P.M. this afternoon, the general meeting in Room 6-120, all students are invited to attend.

Besides describing in prose and profile the means and methods of describing technological progress, the book is written in a manner which will interest the general reader. The Association will hold a special meeting at 7:30 P.M. on Monday, April 5. All students are invited to attend.