F.L.C. Discusses Rushing Problems

Will Elect Officers This Evening

The problem which the Freshmen will face during the next few days is to elect officers for their class. TheSophomore Rush Budget was announced yesterday by the Institute Committee. The price of tickets was set at $1.65 per couple. A proposal to abolish the Senior Prom Committee was put forward by the committee, amended so that the class elections will require each Class A activity to submit a written report to the Committee. The meeting will be held next Thursday afternoon at 3:00 P.M.

Bridge Tournament

To Begin Tomorrow

About 20 Couples Are Expected To Enter

The qualifying round of the sec- ond All Tech Bridge Tournament, sponsored by the Social Activities Committee, will begin tomorrow after- noon at 2:30 P.M. in Lindbergh Lounge. David M. Himmelblau, '44, is in charge of the tournament and will have a large turnout of players.

Only six couples have signed up for the contest on the first post, according to the Social Activities Committee. The first tournament, which was held on Saturday, is expected to take place on Sunday at the same time.

The tournament will be in duplicate fashion. This means that each couple will play in a number of different matches.

T.C.A. Has 2nd List Of Incoming Men

Supplementing the list previously announced, the T.C.A. has received a second list of incoming men. The list includes the names of students who requested to be placed on the list, on or before May 15, 1944. From this second list, the T.C.A. will make a selection, and the list will be available to the College's Committee.
