FRESHMAN CAMP AT TECH

Last year, for the first time in many moons, freshmen were no longer able to use the icy depths of Lake Masapagup, former locale of Freshman Camp, as a depository for naughty Sophs. It was no longer possible to imagine the future of the clan by subjugating the Soph president to the traditional trial by water. This year, tradition must again be followed by the Sophs. Perhaps ingenious Sophs will find a substitute such as chasing the worthy prexy over the commando course with a barbed-wire bull whip. The Soph president to the traditional trial by water. This
