Spurr, Buckingham Leave Technology

Recently the Institute lost two teachers, both in the Engineering Department: Major Jerome L. Spurr and Major Julius Buckingham. Both officers were graduates of Technology. Major Spurr graduated in 1937 and currently holds the position of Assistant Professor of Military Science and Engineering. He has been associated with the Institute since 1931 and is a member of the Institute Committee's Science Committee. Major Buckingham, on the other hand, has been with the Institute since 1928 and is currently serving as a Reserve Officer Training Corps instructor.

Chapters Pledge 8 Percent More Than Last Year

It was announced last night that three hundred and seven new members have been pledged to the Thirteen fraternity chapters which are affiliated with Technology. Most of the new members are from the freshman class. In addition, a large number of these new members were from the sophomore class. This year's pledge drive brought in a total of 300 new members, which is an increase of 8 percent over last year's pledge drive.
