Menorah Society's Dance Considered Very Successful

Last Saturday night, at 9:00 P.M., after fifty Technique students, faculty members, and members of the armed forces, jammed the 5:15 Cloisters in the midst of the Menorah Membership to attend the Menorah Society's first acquaintance dance of the season. There they had a chance to meet a large number of girls from Radcliffe, Jackson, Boston University, and other neighboring schools. A heavy dance was planned, and every effort was made to keep the throng from swarming into the courtroom. The crowd was so large that several people indicated that they would be unable to get tickets by 5:00 P.M. In addition, the dance was expanded to include Soft and Dixie music, which is something new for these trips.

The raffle climax night will be held by William T. van Ravenswaay, 34, and will meet on the Menorah Memorial at 9:00 A.M. From there they will proceed to the center platform of Park Street Under where they will meet the groups from the other colleges at 9:30 A.M.

The cycling group, led by John Paskus of Tufts College, will meet on the Walker Memorial steps at 9:30 A.M. G.T. and get together with the groups from the other colleges on the front steps of the Widener Library in the Harvard College Yard. From there they will cycle to Houghton's Pond. Most of the afternoon will be spent swimming.

There will be two hiking trips: one to Harvard and the other by Radcliffe. Those who are going with the Harvard group will meet at the Homberg Infirmary at 8:30 A.M. for Park Street Under, and those who are going with the Radcliffe Group will meet there at 2:00 P.M.

The activities of both groups will consist of hiking and swimming, and the second group is mainly for the benefit of those who may not make the earlier hiking trip.

All the sections are going to come together on Saturday night, at 11 o'clock, on the hill for supper and a general bonfire, followed by an all-night dance. Everybody should bring their own packed lunch and dinner will be served to everyone at a cost of $1.20 each. The cost of transportation will be $1.00.

Because the last square dance was so popular, another one will be held at the Houghton Pond Hotel. Tickets will be sold at the club houses for $2.00 each, and tomorrow from 12:00 to 1:30 P.M., and can be obtained from members of the Outing Club executive council.
