Air Raid Warning Regulations Postulated

Safety Comm. Places Notices In Classrooms

Within the last two weeks the Institute Safety Committee has posted signs explaining the Air Raid signals in every classroom and in other conspicuous places. Professor Robert S. Williams, Vice President of the committee, stated that the purpose was to acquaint all members of the Institute with the Air Raid regulations, which, as indicated by the last drill, are not yet thoroughly understood.

According to Professor Millard, the regulations that caused the most uncertainty were those concerning the night signal. Under the O.D.C. regulations posted last January, residents were to keep a watch on their normal activities until the sounded the alarm in the event of air raid.

There is no cause for any doubts among the Institute staff that the Institute is in full readiness to follow the regulations. Captain Joyce has been made responsible for putting through the phases of his very varied life.
