Fraternity Findings

J.P.
in '36, he is diggin' in solid. Jess the same liberty that was granted been fixed at obtain them early as the number sell t~o pr event congestion on the dance floor. The Committee recomappealing will be a $6.60 ticket. Unlike previous years sale opposite the cashier's office Usnig the Statler ballroom. it will Hotel Statler has been chosen as new things from IBeeGee in -the Benny back in the groove as shown "Fats" is still very much himself keep his reputation this time.
night-lifers in the past -and should has been very popular with Boston

T.C.A. Drive To Open Monday Sollicitors Needed To Aid In Drive
(Continued from Page 1)

in the Faculty Lounge. Fresh-met at 4:15 P.M. and upper-classmencall at 5:00 o'clock. Mr. De-R. E. L. R. Hildreth, Dean of the Institute, was the good speaker at each meeting.
At the meeting the vol-unters received instructions, pledge and money slips, and other class info-mation. Move sollicitors are needed, according to Reginald S. Stone Chairman, Jr. of the fund-raisers. He stated that anyone who wishes to act as a sollicitor and was not present at the meeting may pick up his material at the T.C.A. office.
Letters were mailed last night to all classmen stating the purpose of the T.C.A. The Chairman and Bob Landwehr is Chairman and Bob Symonette, histrium. Among other items of Elections last week put Art it is all over until after finials.
Arrangements are also being made for a final all-day party here in the city jail, his shipmate a was a glass of champagne followed from Rugby, England, claims that American soldier says

Drive

The Reader Speaks
(Continued from Page 2)
stage Manager, and through the play suffered from the last minute loss of its leading man, Paul Irving did a satisfactory job.
The play was moving, but Our "Town" is expected to move at a lazier pace, and little interest was last.

The two Edwards girls, Milly as Emily Webb, and Lee as Mrs.
Webb, gave outstanding interpretations of their parts. Mrs. Webb was certainly the rosy country housewife who, with such attractive co-star, needs but one more stage manager. the play suffers from the last minute loss of its leading man,
Paul Irving did a satisfactory job.
The play was moving, but
Our "Town" is expected to move at a
lazier pace, and little interest
was last.