M. I. T. Students at Maxwell Field Pre-Flight School

Seven former Technology students have been transferred to the Army Air Forces Pre-Flight School at Maxwell Field, Alabama, to begin the third phase of their training as Naval Aviators. These men are Aviation Cadets: Mr. Theodore C. W. Caldwell, '45, Leon F. Barlow, '45, Ronald K. W. King, '45, Donald F. Fitch, '45, Arnold H. St. George, '45, and John W. K. Ehrab, '45. These aviation cadets are receiving their basic training at the Naval Air Forces Eastern Flying Training Command, Annapolis, Maryland.

Walker, an alumnus of Technology, was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps, is now stationed at the Naval Air Base, Virginia, and has been transferred to the Naval Aviator and be commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve as an Intern in the Naval Reserve.

Naval Aviator Cadet John Walker, an alumnus of Technology, and son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Walker of Oberlin, Tennessee, has successfully completed the primary flight training at the Naval Air Station at Georgeville, Illinois. He has been transferred to the Naval Air Training Command at Corpus Christi, Texas. Upon passing the advanced flying training course, he will, in a few weeks, pilot Walker will pin on his wings as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve or an Intern in the Naval Reserve.

The former Technology student was elected personnel director in December, 1942, and held that position until he left for Washington, D.C., to attend the United States Military Academy. He was commissioned on October 18, 1943, upon completion of the first term of the Academy. Walker was the last day of exams.

The Army Air Forces Pre-Flight School is located at Maxwell Field, Alabama, to be the third phase of their training as Naval Aviators. These men are Aviation Cadets: Mr. Theodore C. W. Caldwell, '45, Leon F. Barlow, '45, Ronald K. W. King, '45, Donald F. Fitch, '45, Arnold H. St. George, '45, and John W. K. Ehrab, '45. These aviation cadets are receiving their basic training at the Naval Air Forces Eastern Flying Training Command, Annapolis, Maryland.

Walker, an alumnus of Technology, was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps, is now stationed at the Naval Air Base, Virginia, and has been transferred to the Naval Aviator and be commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve as an Intern in the Naval Reserve.

Naval Aviator Cadet John Walker, an alumnus of Technology, and son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Walker of Oberlin, Tennessee, has successfully completed the primary flight training at the Naval Air Station at Georgeville, Illinois. He has been transferred to the Naval Air Training Command at Corpus Christi, Texas. Upon passing the advanced flying training course, he will, in a few weeks, pilot Walker will pin on his wings as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve or an Intern in the Naval Reserve.

The former Technology student was elected personnel director in December, 1942, and held that position until he left for Washington, D.C., to attend the United States Military Academy. He was commissioned on October 18, 1943, upon completion of the first term of the Academy. Walker was the last day of exams.

The Army Air Forces Pre-Flight School is located at Maxwell Field, Alabama, to be the third phase of their training as Naval Aviators. These men are Aviation Cadets: Mr. Theodore C. W. Caldwell, '45, Leon F. Barlow, '45, Ronald K. W. King, '45, Donald F. Fitch, '45, Arnold H. St. George, '45, and John W. K. Ehrab, '45. These aviation cadets are receiving their basic training at the Naval Air Forces Eastern Flying Training Command, Annapolis, Maryland.

Walker, an alumnus of Technology, was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps, is now stationed at the Naval Air Base, Virginia, and has been transferred to the Naval Aviator and be commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve as an Intern in the Naval Reserve.

Naval Aviator Cadet John Walker, an alumnus of Technology, and son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Walker of Oberlin, Tennessee, has successfully completed the primary flight training at the Naval Air Station at Georgeville, Illinois. He has been transferred to the Naval Air Training Command at Corpus Christi, Texas. Upon passing the advanced flying training course, he will, in a few weeks, pilot Walker will pin on his wings as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve or an Intern in the Naval Reserve.

The former Technology student was elected personnel director in December, 1942, and held that position until he left for Washington, D.C., to attend the United States Military Academy. He was commissioned on October 18, 1943, upon completion of the first term of the Academy. Walker was the last day of exams.

The Army Air Forces Pre-Flight School is located at Maxwell Field, Alabama, to be the third phase of their training as Naval Aviators. These men are Aviation Cadets: Mr. Theodore C. W. Caldwell, '45, Leon F. Barlow, '45, Ronald K. W. King, '45, Donald F. Fitch, '45, Arnold H. St. George, '45, and John W. K. Ehrab, '45. These aviation cadets are receiving their basic training at the Naval Air Forces Eastern Flying Training Command, Annapolis, Maryland.

Walker, an alumnus of Technology, was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps, is now stationed at the Naval Air Base, Virginia, and has been transferred to the Naval Aviator and be commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve as an Intern in the Naval Reserve.

Naval Aviator Cadet John Walker, an alumnus of Technology, and son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Walker of Oberlin, Tennessee, has successfully completed the primary flight training at the Naval Air Station at Georgeville, Illinois. He has been transferred to the Naval Air Training Command at Corpus Christi, Texas. Upon passing the advanced flying training course, he will, in a few weeks, pilot Walker will pin on his wings as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve or an Intern in the Naval Reserve.

The former Technology student was elected personnel director in December, 1942, and held that position until he left for Washington, D.C., to attend the United States Military Academy. He was commissioned on October 18, 1943, upon completion of the first term of the Academy. Walker was the last day of exams.