Football Tourney Begins This Week Round Robin Playoffs To Start Thanksgiving

The Beaver Key Football Tourney begins this week with the first two games to be played, and six more games scheduled for the weekend. The tourney is designed to continue up to Thanksgiving weekend when there will be a Round Robin playoff among the losers. The rules have already been sent out to the seventeen teams who have registered for the tournament. Three rules were adopted from the Dartmouth-Army A.T.T. touch, but the old Beaver Key rules which unfortunately have been last. Some new rules are slightly closer from the old, and have already been several complaints made to Ken Keating, 344, and John Hall, 144, managers of the tournament. These complaints contain that the men eligible to receive prizes, etc. It is therefore suggested that before the game the captains of the teams meet to discuss possible changes in the rules. If there still remains any doubt about the meaning of the Round Robin, a definite set of rules will be adopted.

Teams are asked to report as early as possible so that the game may be completed and formally begun. The field designated on the map will be used. Any men with experience are to see either Hall or Keating at the Graduate House.

M.I.T. Swordsman Swing into Action

Once again the M. I. T. Fencing team is swinging into action. The M.I.T. team will take the place of the infirmary which has been going, and the event will be changed at all games but all regulations will remain. The Briggs field, an urgent need for referees and the many men with experience are to see either Hall or Keating at the Graduate House.
