day and three on Sunday. All the better trips were done with ideal sailing weather prevailing, and as definite superiority had been exhibited at the end of the day. On Sunday the three regular races were hotly contested but when the totals were counted it was found that M.T. and Harvard were in a tie for first place.

This another man had to be held, which was quite easily taken by Technology.

The regatta was run by L. W. Wood, the latter a former sailing master of Technology and the current coach of the Coast Guard team.

Third Trophy for Tech
Besides the Schell Trophy, the Technology sailors have won two other cups this year. They took the Henry Mora Memorial Cup for the third time since the beginning of competition for this cup and also the inaugural Mr. T.T. Tailing Association Cup.

The Schell Trophy is a large silver cup resting on a black and gold base, one inch thick at the top. It may be seen at the Commonwealth’s room at the Technology Store.

Reviews and Previews
METROPOLITAN — Bob Hope and Betty Hutton in the screen version of the successful radio comedy Let’s Face It. Perhaps a little disappointing for those who have seen the play but one of Hope’s finest. Betty Hutton’s worth watching for.

LOET’S STATE AND ORPHEUM — Humphrey Bogart in Sahara. For the second time the star of “Casablanca” shows that he can play more than gangster parts. This is another better one of the 100 prettiest pictures ever produced. Definitely worth seeing.

PARKHOMPTON AND PENNEY — In no way do these two talents stand behind Henry Fonda’s performance in Young Mr. Lincoln. However, they both stand behind the film. It is a well-woven story of the Civil War

OLYMPIA — Ozzy and Laraine Day are shown in Mr. Lucky, a very amusing picture. Everyone will enjoy this picture, as Ozzy and Laraine Day do not disappoint themselves in “Watch on the Rhine.”

Saturday, November 7th, is the date of the Tech Junior Class dance at 8:00 P.M. at the Harvard-Boston College games. It receives a number of door prizes last year consisted of a $2.00 bill and the rest given by the Tech Committee. The Junior Class and awards will be announced next year. Also, as has been the custom, a number of door prizes will be awarded to the lucky diner holders. The prizes have not been announced yet.

Gave Rents Last Year
Last year the Junior Prom also was a weekend affair. On Saturday night, there was a large informal dance held in Morris Hall, Walker Memorial. Instead of four house parties, there were five; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Chi Phi, Theta Chi, Delta Phi, and Theta Xi. In addition to the formal, house parties, and the informal dance, there was a movie screening in the Alumni Pool on Saturday afternoon. The door prize last year consisted of a twenty-five dollar war bonds bond of which were donated by Van-Neck and the rest given by the Tech Committee on behalf of the Junior Class.
