Dorsey Featured At Lounge Bar

CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 19 (FF) — In a surprise move the Walker Memorial Dining Service announced last night that they had signed up Tommy Dorsey to furnish nightly entertainment at the Lounge Bar. This move was made for two reasons, first because the customary radio had gone on the blink and repair parts could not be obtained, and secondly the management had become worried about “Pomaline Gardens” stealing the desert trade.

The question of whether or not hostesses will have to be added to the staff to introduce the Army men who hang around there to the secretaries who do the same is still under consideration. Many people feel that this move would be superficial as the gals are already doing pretty well by themselves.

Momose, the Lounge Bar Wolf, says he is not worried under any circumstances as he is confident that he can hold his own. His classmates say he is probably right.

Rocket Chases Graber

managed to escape safely, but the rocket approached the group of some unaccountable reason, turned, and raced along above the ground, chasing one unfortunate freshman, Always Graber. It is reported that this freshman lost his life running from the rocket, but this has not been confirmed. As it was burning his poster, however, and he expected to be nudge him, he tripped, and the rocket flashed overhead. The society watched it pass through the house nearby, and then for no reason turn and start back towards the house, toward them, and it precipitously flew. It was dealt at a special meeting that none would be said about the trial, the society had reckoned with the ingenuity of your faithful porter.
