All Nominees Present Platforms For Class Elections February 2.
CLASS OF 1945 (10-44)

PREPENDENT

King Cate: "Although social burdens are being cut, the demand for social functions will continue to be raised by fraternity men, as well as Fraternity and sorority. The need for smaller, less expensive dances that everyone can afford will become apparent. The solution to this problem will be to furnish, informal dances run by the classes themselves—on the spot by student activities.

Robert L. Hornsby, Jr. "In the few months remaining to the class of 10-44 at the Institute I feel that now more than ever there is need for unity and cooperation among its members and its fraternities. For service men and students fraternity and sorority, we are the representatives of a body of class officers, among whose duties should be numbered, finding and affecting dissolving of these matters so important to us all concerning our remaining months at the Institute and thereafter.

John L. Reif: "I am running for the office of President of the class of 10-44 for two reasons. First, I have a deep interest in undergraduate curricular activities to help accomplish the aims desired by the class and school. Secondly, I feel that I have had sufficient experience in school activities to help accomplish the aims desired by the class and school.

Robert R. Aragon: "I am running for the office of President of the class of 10-44 for two reasons. First, I have a deep interest in undergraduate curricular activities to help accomplish the aims desired by the class and school. Secondly, I feel that I have had sufficient experience in school activities to help accomplish the aims desired by the class and school.

FILED, COMM. REF.

Joseph M. Aguila: "As long as I have been at Tech, I have been interested in the Kentian. After elections I will be an either an interested member of the Kentian or an interested member. In either case, I hope to have the opportunity to take part in the Kentian's activities.

As far as policy is concerned, I am running for President of the class of 10-44 for two reasons. First, I have a deep interest in undergraduate curricular activities to help accomplish the aims desired by the class and school. Secondly, I feel that I have had sufficient experience in school activities to help accomplish the aims desired by the class and school.

PRESIDENT

Walter E. Kaltsas: "A coming problem is the new freshmen class. Although they will be admitted in February, they will be few in number and I am under the impression that this incoming class will feel slightly incorporated. It will be the duty of the Junior class to create class spirit and unity among these new students. A Freshman Day seems doubtful, yet I feel that manufacturing a Freshman Day should be inaugurated.

Gerald L. Mackinson, Jr.: "The President's most important duty is to represent the student body. I am a member of the Frat-Soph Dance Committee and as Treasurer of the Sophomore Prom I have profited from the mistakes in the past and shall do to the best of my ability.

JOHN P. MARIE, JR., 236
