AST Band Holds First Rehearsal
Forty-Five Musicians
Show Great Interest

The enlistment drive, which is being directed by the special service officer, Lt. A. W. George, who greatly admired Lt. Popejoy, was started the week preceding the first of February. The drive is scheduled to continue during the month of February and extend to the end of March, or until the number of musicians are wanted.

The meeting was held in the armory at 7:30 p.m. with Capt. J. H. Williams as host and Maj. R. W. Baluffi as synthesizer. The meeting was attended by a large number of interested men from the various schools in the area.

It was announced that the band would consist of forty-five musicians and that the first rehearsal would be held the following Tuesday evening in the armory. The rehearsal was to be conducted by Maj. R. W. Baluffi, who was recently appointed as special service officer for the AST Band.

The band members, who were selected from interested men, were divided into the following sections:

- Percussion: J. H. Williams.

The band was given its first rehearsal, which was conducted by Maj. R. W. Baluffi. The rehearsal was well received and the band members were given valuable suggestions on how to improve their playing.

The band rehearsed for approximately one hour, during which time the members were given individual instruction by the major. The rehearsal was followed by a special meeting held in the armory, which was attended by all interested men.

The meeting was conducted by Maj. R. W. Baluffi, who gave a detailed report on the progress of the drive to date and discussed the number of musicians still needed. The major also gave a detailed report on the progress of the drive to date and discussed the number of musicians still needed.
