Dean MacCormack, Professor Emeritus
In His Retirement

The retirement of four prominent members of the faculty of the Institute occurred at the end of the academic year on July 1. Deans MacCormack, aged 74, and Dean Colwell, aged 74, have notified the Institute that they desire to retire at the end of the academic year on July 1, 1946.

Dean MacCormack has been head of the Department of Architecture since 1887. He has been appointed an honorary lecturer and will retire from active work on July 1, 1946. He has been elected at the next meeting of the Alumni Association.

Dean Colwell has been a member of the faculty since 1895. He has been appointed an honorary lecturer and will retire from active work on July 1, 1946. He has been elected at the next meeting of the Alumni Association.

T.E.N. On Sale

Next Tues., Wed.

The April issue of the Technical Review, Institute's new student weekly, will go on sale Tuesday and Wednesday. The price is 50 cents per copy. A subscription will cost $1.50 for students and $1.75 for non-students.

Continuation of the series "This Is M.I.T." will begin with the April issue. Dr. H. E. Campbell and S. L. Hill will be the editors of the April issue.

Knox College Graduates

Dean MacCormack was ordained a Knox College graduate at Galesburg, Ill., and was graduated from Knox College in 1893. He was educated at the University of Chicago and was known as "an outstanding scholar at Knox College in his day." He went on to become a professor of architecture at M.I.T. in 1895.

"The American Telephone and Telegraph Library of Building 10." The April issue of the Technical Review, Institute's new student weekly, will be on sale Tuesday and Wednesday. The price is 50 cents per copy. A subscription will cost $1.50 for students and $1.75 for non-students.