SATISFACTORY BUT NOT SUFFICIENT

very few undergraduates encounter after enrolling.

already large contribution to the war effort?

a little of your tinge and 10 per cent of your blood to both have worked very hard and deserve a great deal of credit for the continue the drive for the duration of the war. To date they the opportunity to do some healthful work in the open, a thing impression they receive here. The student himself should value personages from other countries and they will carry home the of considerable import as many of its visitors are important the looks of their school but to work outdoors in the open air but the ever-present manpower shortage has made it impossible fail to realize what has happened and form an inferior impres-and the necessity of it. Unfortunately outsiders and visitors the little difficulties.

and profound that most persons are

Effects of the war on Technology have been so numerous program at the Institute have been obvious

Harrison A. Poole,

and the Conference stated that: "All past ex-

prove a point, but which is entirely was highly unfair to the I.F.C. My prove its desire and ability to con-

the Conference tabled the discus-

"All fraternities must be treated safely.

it is run along much the same lines as a fraternity." There

the house "is run along much the

the house, and more will prob-

Executive Committee than this

I frankly expected more of the new

Perhaps the smug members of that

I sincerely expected more of the new

the Editors of The Tech:

THE TECH

is a journal of the Institute and is devoted to the promotion of public is a record of the activities of the Institute. Articles are published in it is both in the best interests of the

in the case of the Latin-American House, to send rep-

the same number of cases of each

But the ever-present manpower shortage has made it impossible

the little difficulties.

and profound that most persons are

Effects of the war on Technology have been so numerous

program at the Institute have been obvious

Harrison A. Poole,

and the Conference stated that: "All past ex-

prove a point, but which is entirely

was highly unfair to the I.F.C. My

prove its desire and ability to con-

the Conference tabled the discus-

"All fraternities must be treated

safely.

it is run along much the

same lines as a fraternity." There

the house "is run along much the

the house, and more will prob-

Executive Committee than this

I frankly expected more of the new

Perhaps the smug members of that

I sincerely expected more of the new

the Editors of The Tech:

THE TECH

is a journal of the Institute and is devoted to the promotion of public

is a record of the activities of the Institute. Articles are published in it

is both in the best interests of the

in the case of the Latin-American House, to send rep-

the same number of cases of each

But the ever-present manpower shortage has made it impossible

the little difficulties.

and profound that most persons are

Effects of the war on Technology have been so numerous

program at the Institute have been obvious

Harrison A. Poole,

and the Conference stated that: "All past ex-

prove a point, but which is entirely

was highly unfair to the I.F.C. My

prove its desire and ability to con-

the Conference tabled the discus-

"All fraternities must be treated

safely.

it is run along much the

same lines as a fraternity." There

the house "is run along much the

the house, and more will prob-

Executive Committee than this

I frankly expected more of the new

Perhaps the smug members of that

I sincerely expected more of the new

the Editors of The Tech:

THE TECH

is a journal of the Institute and is devoted to the promotion of public

is a record of the activities of the Institute. Articles are published in it

is both in the best interests of the

in the case of the Latin-American House, to send rep-

the same number of cases of each

But the ever-present manpower shortage has made it impossible

the little difficulties.

and profound that most persons are

Effects of the war on Technology have been so numerous

program at the Institute have been obvious

Harrison A. Poole,

and the Conference stated that: "All past ex-

prove a point, but which is entirely

was highly unfair to the I.F.C. My

prove its desire and ability to con-

the Conference tabled the discus-

"All fraternities must be treated

safely.

it is run along much the

same lines as a fraternity." There

the house "is run along much the

the house, and more will prob-

Executive Committee than this

I frankly expected more of the new

Perhaps the smug members of that

I sincerely expected more of the new

the Editors of The Tech:

THE TECH

is a journal of the Institute and is devoted to the promotion of public

is a record of the activities of the Institute. Articles are published in it

is both in the best interests of the

in the case of the Latin-American House, to send rep-

the same number of cases of each

But the ever-present manpower shortage has made it impossible

the little difficulties.

and profound that most persons are

Effects of the war on Technology have been so numerous

program at the Institute have been obvious

Harrison A. Poole,

and the Conference stated that: "All past ex-

prove a point, but which is entirely

was highly unfair to the I.F.C. My

prove its desire and ability to con-

the Conference tabled the discus-

"All fraternities must be treated

safely.

it is run along much the