Latin Americans Celebrate April 14 In Radio Program

On the night of April 14, the band of the Latin American House (better known as the Havana Band) went over the Yankee network. They were heard in Canada, Panama, Colombia, and Argentina, and almost this half hour in London. They had formed on Pan American Day.

Time to T.C.A. Cabin

Next weekend the Outing Club will take over the T.C.A. cabin at Lake Mass Ambassador. This kind of a trip is always popular, featuring a square dance, some fishing, and very probably some dancing. W. H. Cooley announced that the sign-up list will be up as of 9:00 A.M. Monday. Those who desire to use the cabin should register there. Those who desire to be held in reserve may use the Tech Cabin.

Freshman Council Will Plan Dance

(Continued from Page 4)

Frank Parker's distinguished Acting Manager of Pan American. Some of the Latin American House dances and have played at such places as Symphony Hall. They have been presented to the fraternity she is a member of, due to his definition of religion. Later the band played the opening measures at the Fraternity House.

Intercollegiate Baseball Played By Freshmen

(Continued from Page 1)

The Institute of Astronautical Sciences announced a special meet- ing to be held Thursday, May 5, at 7:00 P.M. in Huntington Hall, Rooms 2A and 2B. Mr. John C. Leslie, operations manager of Pan American, will speak on "Aircraft." Mr. Leslie will announce the longer American Airlines to university students.

Mr. John C. Leslie
SPEAKS FOR L.A.E.

Dr. W. H. Cooley, 11-46; Publicity, John A. Allard, 10-46; Public Relations, W. E. Newman, 10-46; and Secretary, Stephen Libenson, 10-46. The meeting was held in the Tech Tunnel.

The funeral arrangements will be announced.

ROCKET SOCIETY OBTAINS ALUMINUM FOR NEW MOTOR

William Cooley, N. 64, was elected vice-president at Monday, April 24. Cooley replaces John Pomeroy, a member of the rocket society last year, who is president of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

The funeral arrangements will be announced.

Mr. John C. Leslie, operations manager of Pan American, will speak on "Aircraft." Mr. Leslie will announce the longer American Airlines to university students.

The Institute of Astronautical Sciences announced a special meet- ing to be held Thursday, May 5, at 7:00 P.M. in Huntington Hall, Rooms 2A and 2B. Mr. John C. Leslie, operations manager of Pan American, will speak on "Aircraft." Mr. Leslie will announce the longer American Airlines to university students.

Mr. John C. Leslie, operations manager of Pan American, will speak on "Aircraft." Mr. Leslie will announce the longer American Airlines to university students.

Mr. John C. Leslie, operations manager of Pan American, will speak on "Aircraft." Mr. Leslie will announce the longer American Airlines to university students.

Mr. John C. Leslie, operations manager of Pan American, will speak on "Aircraft." Mr. Leslie will announce the longer American Airlines to university students.

Mr. John C. Leslie, operations manager of Pan American, will speak on "Aircraft." Mr. Leslie will announce the longer American Airlines to university students.

Mr. John C. Leslie, operations manager of Pan American, will speak on "Aircraft." Mr. Leslie will announce the longer American Airlines to university students.

Mr. John C. Leslie, operations manager of Pan American, will speak on "Aircraft." Mr. Leslie will announce the longer American Airlines to university students.

Mr. John C. Leslie, operations manager of Pan American, will speak on "Aircraft." Mr. Leslie will announce the longer American Airlines to university students.