FBI Seizes Voo Doo On Charges Of Giving Aid To Enemy Nations; Wilding-White Put Under Arrest

Armed Guard At Office Protects Sabotage Records

BOSTON, MAY 12 (AP) — It was announced early this morning by the FBI that Voo Doo had been seized by the government and that Raymond M. Wilding-White, 44, managing editor, had been arrested on charges of aiding the enemy. Mr. Shaw stated that the investigation had been in progress since the mysterious disappearance of The Tech editors in a prosaic and rather simple game of football which would be far out of the range of your maximum abilities, and we therefore challenge you to a game of baseball.

The Tech Platform

THE TECH presents the following platform which we, as THE TECH, hold for the benefit of all tech students.

1. Accept the challenge of Voo Doo to a soft-ball game to be held at such time and place as the General Managers of the two publications may set and determine.

2. Invite all doctors, dentists, surgeons, teachers, nurses, athletes, drivers, erudite scholars, and citizens generally to an end-of-the-term banquet at the Commonwealth Avenue Hotel, and to attend upon the celebration, masses, and timely examination of these pseudo-intellectuals, these sordid athletes, these pseudo-effete sods called Voo Doo.
