Gov. Saltonstall Will Speak Today in Huntington Hall

This afternoon Governor Leverett Saltonstall will give a lecture at 5:00 P.M. in Huntington Hall, Room 250. This talk is the first of a series of speeches on current economic, political, and social problems, sponsored by the Lecture Selection Committee.

The next speaker in the series is definitely known and will be announced next week, according to Albert J. Hansell, 2-46. It is expected that this talk will be given in two or three weeks.

Form Committee Activities Revealed

Walker Investigation Produces Results

The results of the Walker Investigation Committee, which was announced at the meeting of the Dormitory Committee last Monday in the Litchfield Lounge of Walker Hall, have already taken place. The Lounge Bar is to be opened at midnight; and meal tickets can come back into use. Full course reductions cannot be served at present, according to the Office of Price Administration, which will not permit it.

The dormitory tennis tournament started with the first round completed yesterday. Thirty-two teams are participating in the tournament. The dormitory softball team has already come to a halt with Wood the Champions and Hayden the runner-up. These activities are under the direction of John J. Votella, 4-46, and Dr. E. W. Cross, Jr., of the Dormitory Athletic Council.

The probability of holding an acquaintance dance on October 14 has been announced by Shersing J. Lalonde, 3-46, the Chairman of the Dance Committee. He stated that this would be a fine opportunity for the men to meet girls in neighbor colleges.

Institute Announces Faculty Promotions

In line with the new four-year program in the humanities and social sciences which was recently announced by the Institute, Dr. Norman J. Padelford was appointed Dr. Norman J. Padelford as Professor of International Relations. Dr. Padelford, formerly a member of the Faculty of the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, and consultant to the State Department, will have charge of the courses in the humanities program dealing with international relations.

The Institute has also recently announced the promotion of Frederick J. Adams and Lawrence B. Anderson from the rank of associate professor to professor on the faculty of the School of Architecture and Planning at Technology.

Goal For TCA Annual Drive Is Set At $2135

Drive Will Be Held From October 2-6; Budget Items Listed

The annual Technology Christian Association drive will open on Monday, October 2, and will continue for the week, closing on Friday, October 6. This year, the American Red Cross and World Student Service Fund drives will be held simultaneously, and the drive cards will have separate donations for the three organizations.

The goal in the coming drive, $2135, is necessary for the continued services of the T. C. A., including such familiar items as the Handbook, Boys' Work, Freshman Camp, the Fireman, and the Employment Bureau. This figure is lower than last year's goal of $2450.

Dinner For Workers

A complimentary dinner will be held on Thursday, September 28 at 8:15 P.M., in the Walker dining hall, at which all workers in the drive should be present. After the dinner, a meeting will be held in the Litchfield Lounge, where addresses will be heard from representatives of the T. C. A., the World Student Service Fund, and the Red Cross.

On October 2, one worker will be at each fraternity, the Graduate House, and the Dormitories to ex...

(Continued on Page 4)